Everyday Stewardship

Mindful – live in the present, without baggage of the past or fear of the future.

Prayerful – sometimes it's only about "being" with God, not necessarily talking and listening to God.

Grateful – give thanks for the not so obvious things.

Gracious – the grace we receive from God we should share with others, giving you a piece of me.

Committed – stay on course and persevere, to run the race we must train for it.

Accountable – to each other, help each other be one Body of Christ.

St. Anne Church

Church Cleaning Team #3 – Jane Schmidt

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, We celebrate a series of witnesses this week. St.

Justin Martyr gave witness to the Gospel by refusing to sacrifice to idols in 2nd century Rome. St. Charles Lwanga gave witness to the Gospel by refusing to comply with the king's immoral sexual agenda in 19th century Uganda. St. Boniface gave witness by proclaiming the Gospel and knocking down pagan shrines in 8th century Germany.

These saints raise a question: What does it mean for us to give witness to the Gospel in 21st century Missouri?

Many people instinctively turn to the quote generally attributed to St. Francis: "Preach the Gospel always. If necessary, use words." But I want to say, words are necessary if we're going to give witness to the Gospel in our day.

Our lives are full of words. We live by e-mails, texts, blog posts and Google searches. Words are a central feature of every part of our lives. It's absurd to take this one area — faith — and to suggest that we don't need words there.

That's not to say by any stretch that words are the first and last thing when it comes to proclaiming the Gospel. They're not! Deeds need to come first and last. But if we stop for a moment and think about the relationship between words and deeds in our lives, we can see that both are needed.

Words without deeds are cheap. Words alone are a shallow witness to what we believe. Deeds provide depth to words of love, and likewise to words of faith. Deeds show that we really mean what we say.

But deeds without words are often unclear. Words explain why we do what we do. If deeds show that we really mean it, words show what it is that we mean. The words "I love you" and "I forgive you" and "I'm sorry" really matter. So do the words of faith.

In the Old Testament, God's revelation always came to people in words and deeds. In the New Testament, Jesus always proclaimed the Gospel in words and deeds. That's why the Catechism of the Catholic Church says: "The divine plan of Revelation is realized simultaneously by deeds and words which are intrinsically bound up with each other and shed light on each other." (CCC, 53)

In times when faith is all talk and little action, the St. Francis quote is a worthy challenge: don't let your faith be words without deeds.

But in a time when people overlook the importance of words, we need a new challenge and a new motto: Preach the Gospel always, in word and in deed. Reprinted St. Louis Review May 27, 2021 Archbishop's Column

St. Joseph Parish Fall Dinner

Instead of the Fall Festival, tentative plans are being made for a Fall Dinner and Raffle. Details about the dinner will be decided in the next couple of months.

Possible raffle prizes are a 50/50 drawing, a lottery tree and/or a gift card tree but we need your help. We would appreciate donated gift cards (grocery stores, loaded VISA cards, Dollar Store, Wal-Mart, restaurants, etc.). If you wish to donate lottery tickets or cash to purchase cards or tickets, we would appreciate any gift you could donate.

Place your donation in an envelope and drop it in the basket with church envelopes or drop off or mail to the office. Please write on the envelope "Raffle". If you could have these to the office by July 1st, we will know how to promote our raffle.

Thank you for helping to make this year's dinner and raffle a successful event.

Fall Dinner & Raffle Meeting

There will be a meeting for all the St. Joseph Parish Fall Dinner Chairpersons and interested parties on Tuesday, June 15, 2021 at 6:30 p.m. All are welcome. Please plan to attend in order to discuss plans for the St. Joseph Fall Dinner and raffle prizes.

Please Pray for the Sick and St. Joe Manor Nursing Home Residents:

Nancy Farkas	Mary Waisner
Michelle Anderson	Ruth Wood
Ralph Mueller	Joyce Schilly
David White	James Bloom
Jim Stech	Catherine Weindel-Bast
Debbie Clark	Betty Warden
Robert Armstrong	Lynn Graczyk
Deacon Don Schmidt

We also remember in our prayers all healthcare professionals, those providing essential services, all who are battling chronic illnesses, COVID-19 victims, the homebound, and all of us who are in isolation.

Father's Day Cards

Father's Day Cards are available courtesy of Birthright of Hillsboro. They are located on a table in the back of Church. The envelope contains a Father's Day card, a donation card and a small envelope. Fill out the card, enclose a donation, add a stamp and drop it in the mail. Then send the greeting card to a friend, relative, or loved one. Thanks for supporting Birthright.

Perfect Contrition and Spiritual Communion

What to do if you cannot go to Confession or Holy Communion due to the COVID-19 coronavirus

If you have to self-isolate or are quarantined due to the COVID-19 coronavirus, it is unlikely that you will be able to receive the sacraments as normal.

In these circumstances, there are devotions through which you can receive absolution for your sins, (under certain conditions), and the consolation of Eucharistic grace.

These devotions are officially encouraged by the Church and have been practiced by saints.

How to make an Act of Perfect Contrition

Through an act of Perfect Contrition, you receive pardon for your sins outside of confession, even mortal sins, on condition that you determine to amend your life and make a firm resolution to go to sacramental confession as soon as this becomes possible for you.

Perfect Contrition is a grace from God, so sincerely ask for this gift throughout the day prior to making your act of contrition: "My God, grant me perfect contrition for all my sins".

1. In reality or imagination kneel at the foot of a crucifix and say to yourself: "Jesus, my God and my Saviour, in the midst of your agony, you remembered me, you suffered for me, you wished to wipe away my sins".
2. Contrition is 'perfect' if you repent of your sins because you love God and are sorry for offending Him and causing the sufferings of Christ on the cross. Before the Crucified Christ remember your sins, repent of them because they have brought our Lord to His sufferings on the Cross. Promise him, that with His help, you will not sin again.
3. Recite, slowly and sincerely, an act of contrition focused on the goodness of God and your love of Jesus: "O my God, because you are so good, I am very sorry that I have sinned against you and by the help of your grace I will not sin again. Amen".
4. Make a firm resolution to go to sacramental confession as soon as practically possible.

How to make a Spiritual Communion

The key to Spiritual Communion is to grow in your heart a constant desire for the Blessed Sacrament.

1. If you are aware of serious or mortal sin, make an Act of Perfect Contrition.
2. Imagine the sacred words and actions of the Mass or watch online or on TV.
3. Make all those acts of faith, humility, sorrow, adoration, love and desire that you usually express before Holy Communion.
4. Desire, with earnest longing, to receive our Lord present — Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity — in the Blessed Sacrament.
5. Say this prayer of St. Alphonsus de' Ligouri: "My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You are already there, I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You; do not let me ever be separated from You. Amen.
6. After moments of silent adoration make all those acts of faith, humility, love, thanksgiving and offering that you usually express through prayers after Holy Communion.
