Dear Friends,

“My Lord and my God!” (John 20:28).

These are the words that the Apostle Thomas proclaimed when he saw the Risen Christ for the first time. The same Lord and God who appeared to Thomas is indeed the One who appears to us in every Holy Mass, in every Holy Communion.

When we behold Him truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament we happily proclaim in our hearts the same wondrous truth: “My Lord and my God!”

This weekend take to heart the inspired preaching of our guest homilist, Fr. Lawrence Villone, Missionary of the Blessed Sacrament. His homily this weekend is intended uniquely for you and your relationship with Jesus.

Jesus wants a profoundly personal relationship with you. He wants to dwell in your mind, in your heart, and in your spirit. He wants you to know and experience the fullness of his life, death, and resurrection through His Real Presence.

Allow the words of Fr. Villone this weekend to inspire you. You will likely find yourself wanting to spend more time visiting the parish Adoration Chapel. It is YOUR chapel. It is YOUR Lord and God Who awaits you there.

Your Pastor,
Father O’Hare

WISDOM FOR THE WEEK:

Definition of ‘Parable’

“The parable is a metaphor or simile drawn from nature or common life, arresting the hearer by its vividness or strangeness, and leaving the mind in sufficient doubt about its precise application to tease it into active thought, for the parable has the character of an argument in that it entices the hearer to a judgment upon the situation, and then challenges him, directly or by implication, to apply that judgment to the matter in hand.” -C.H.Dodd

Queridos amigos,

“¡Señor mío y Dios mío!” (Juan 20:28).

Estas son las palabras que el Apóstol Tomas proclamo cuando vio el Cristo Resucitado por primera vez. El mismo Señor y Dios que se le apareció a Tomas es el mismo que se aparece a nosotros en cada Santa Misa, en cada Santa Comunión.

Cuando lo contemplamos verdaderamente presente en el Sagrado Sacramento felizmente proclamamos en nuestros corazones la misma verdad maravillosa: “¡Señor mío y Dios mío!”

Este fin de semana tomen en serio la predica de nuestro homilista invitado, el Padre Lorenzo Villone, Misionero del Sagrado Sacramento. Su homilía este fin de semana esta dirigida singularmente a cada uno de ustedes y su relación con Jesús.

Jesús quiere una relación profundamente personal con ustedes. El quiere habitar en sus mentes, en sus corazones, y en sus espíritus. El quiere que conozcan y experimenten la plenitud de su vida, muerte, y resurrección a través de Su Presencia Real.

Permitan que las palabras del Padre Villone este fin de semana les inspire. Ustedes de seguro sentirán el deseo de pasar mas tiempo visitando la Capilla de Adoración. Es SU capilla. Es SU Señor y Dios que les espera allí.

Su Párroco,
Padre O’Hare

SABIDURÍA PARA LA SEMANA:

Definición de ‘Parábola’

“La parábola es una metáfora o símil extraída de la naturaleza o vida diaria, atrayendo al oyente por su vivacidad o extravagancia, y dejando en la mente suficiente duda a cerca de su aplicación precisa para provocar un pensamiento activo, pues la parábola tiene el carácter de una discusión al motivar al oyente a juzgar la situación, y después lo reta, directa o indirectamente, a aplicar ese juicio al asunto en cuestión.” -C.H. Dodd

PRAYERS & SQUARES NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

Can you touch a prayer? Can you pull it close and feel its comfort? You can if it's part of a prayer quilt. As each knot is tied, a silent prayer is offered for someone in special need, someone who has asked us to pray for them. The quilt is then given to that person. These quilts are a statement of faith, and a testimony to our belief in God and in the power of prayer. To join Prayers & Squares at St. Louis, or to request a quilt for someone in need contact Tricia Reeder at triciareeder@gmail.com.
