PASTOR'S CORNER

People often ask me how they can grow spiritually. I always tell them: "the best way hands down to grow spiritually is to go to daily Mass if at all possible!" There is no substitute for the frequent encounter with the Eucharist - our Lord's body, blood, soul, and divinity! However, at daily Mass we also encounter God's word - the same readings proclaimed all over the world - each day by the church! That Word provides a theme for spiritual growth as well as leading us more deeply into the mysteries of salvation.

The greatest of these “daily” liturgies are the great Triduum – Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil! If you really want to grow the MOST spiritually, block the time, sink deeply into these liturgies, and experience the mysteries. Pay close attention to the readings! Pay close attention to the prayers! Pay close attention to the sung parts of the Mass. Literally everything, including the melodies used in these days signifies a part of the mystery.

In addition to those three great liturgies, also come to Tenebrae in the mornings of the of the Triduum if possible. This ancient service of Tenebrae features Dominican Chant (mostly in English) in the Lamentations of Jeremiah. These lead us into the awful sadness of the death of our Savior. Yet, they also point us to the ultimate victory at Easter!!

If you want to really experience the fullness of Easter, take time both in the morning and the evening of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday to come to church and experience these most holy days. Bring your kids along, too – when I was a young boy, I could tell that these were the most important days in the year because we spent so much time in church!

Also please pray for the 23 people who will be receiving sacraments at our Easter Vigil! We are really blessed here at Holy Family to have the Holy Spirit working overtime to inspire deep conversions!!!

Let us walk together through the drama of this week! Let us put our whole selves into the mystery as we approach the cross by being formed by the liturgy! Let us rejoice with great joy as we see the enemy defeated and the empty tomb!!!
