PASTOR’S CORNER

All Saints’ Day marks my two year anniversary as Pastor! What a great joy it has been to be a spiritual father here in Alaska! It is great to see our parish flourishing with so many people of all ages and walks of life! It is even more thrilling to see the amount of people going to confession regularly – a sure sign of health that our faithful are taking their own walks with the Lord so seriously!

This weekend in addition to All Saints' Day, we celebrate All Souls' Day – those twin days focused on the afterlife. Rejoicing with the souls who are already with God in the church in heaven, and praying for the souls still yearning to see the face of God in the church in Purgatory. It is a wonderful time to pray for our loved ones who have died – and also to re-calibrate our lives and journeys toward our hoped for goal in heaven!

I truly believe we are a parish of people who want to be saints! However, an essential question to follow this is are we helping others become Saints, too? We are not called to be saints by ourselves. Our own spiritual lives are not meant for us alone. It can never be simply “me and Jesus.” Do we help others become saints??

When celebrating All Saints' Day, much like praying the rosary, it puts our final end in mind. In the rosary, all of the mysteries, except for the last, document the life of Christ and the early church. However, the final mystery of the rosary points to heaven, to the coronation of the Blessed Mother. Where Mary has gone, we hope to follow! She is crowned queen of heaven and earth!!! We are called to follow in His way and to reign with Him.

So – do you have a longing for heaven? Also, do you have a group of people you want to help get to heaven? For those who are married, this should start with your spouse and children. But in addition to this, do we have a list of people, at least in our minds, whom we want to bring to the fullness of Truth in the Christian Catholic faith??

All of us, in virtue of our baptisms, are called to proclaim the Kingdom of God to the ends of the earth! Do you have a short list of 2 or 3 people whom you'd like to invite to church? These people might range from lukewarm Catholic Christians to those who have never really thought about God before. Can we assist the Holy Spirit in igniting the faith in their hearts?

For me, it is always the hope of heaven that drives me on! I want to be a SAINT! We are a parish of people who want to be saints. Can we take it to the next level and be a parish of disciples who want others to be saints as well? Apart from that nothing else much really matters. Siempre Adelante!
