In the Gospel today, we meet the first prophet of Advent, Saint John the Baptist. John calls for radical change in the lives of his community, and asks the people to let go of their pasts by immersing themselves in the living waters in anticipation of the arrival of the Messiah. Next to this call of the Baptist, we hear the words of Saint Paul to the Romans, inviting us to come together in Christ, who welcomes us into his heart, both fulfilling the promises of the past and creating a new path into the future. As we prepare for Christmas, what obstacles keep us from being welcoming to others? How can we avoid them? This Advent season invites us to examine our past so that we may rejoice in the future made present in the Lord of the Gospel.

*A voice of one crying out in the desert,
Prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight his paths.
IS 40:3*

En el Evangelio de hoy, nos encontramos con el primer profeta de Adviento, San Juan Bautista. Juan llama a un cambio radical en la vida de su comunidad, y pide a la gente que suelte su pasado sumergiéndose en las aguas vivas en previsión de la llegada del Mesías. Junto a esta llamada del Bautista, escuchamos las palabras de san Pablo a los romanos, invitándonos a unirnos en Cristo, que nos acoge en su corazón, cumpliendo las promesas del pasado y creando un nuevo camino hacia el futuro. Mientras nos preparamos para la Navidad, ¿qué obstáculos nos impiden ser bienvenidos a los demás? ¿Cómo podemos evitarlos? Este tiempo de Adviento nos invita a examinar nuestro pasado para que podamos regocijarnos en el futuro presente en el Señor del Evangelio.

PRAYER CHAIN

From the Desk of Father Kurt

Today we begin the second Sunday of Advent. In the first reading today, from the prophet Isaiah, we hear the prophecy of the Messiah. When He comes, "Not by appearance shall he judge, nor by hearsay shall he decide, but he shall judge the poor with justice, and decide aright for the land's afflicted." Jesus is the Messiah who brings fulfillment to this prophecy, but he expects to use our hands and feet to do it.

I often listen to the cries of the poor, and those who suffer, and I am surprised that such poverty could exist in a country so abundant in wealth. I think sometimes the social problems in our country; such as illegal immigration, often times cloud our obligation to help the cry of the poor. As a Christian we are not to ask for identification of legal residency before we feed a hungry child or to stop to console a crying mother.

Our obligation to the poor and suffering transcends boundaries and borders. Jesus is still in our midst fulfilling the prophecy of old, and he is using his disciples to carry out his mission. The question is, are we a part of His mission or a part of the problem?

Love in Christ,
Father Kurt Farrell

Las Posadas

What is Las Posadas? ✕ ✕ ✕

As part of Christmas, the traditional fiestas called Mexican(inns) are held for family, friends, and neighbors. This 9-day Mexican Christmas tradition is based on the biblical journey of Mary and Joseph and their search of a safe place, or "inn," to stay before the birth of Jesus.

Each year St. Theodore's Hispanic community celebrates this wonderful nightly tradition beginning the 16th of December and ending on the 24th. Each evening at 6:00 pm a different family opens their home for all who want to participate in this tradition. Prayer, song, food and fellowship are shared at each home. The night of the 24th all gather at church to celebrate Mass and the birth of our Lord. Below are dates and locations of each evening celebration. You can choose to come to one or all, it's up to you!
