Let us continue praying for our family;
Let us pray that the joy of the Transfiguration will give us hope on the Lenten journey.

Sigamos orando por nuestra familia;
Oremos para que el gozo de la Transfiguración nos de esperanza en camino Cuaresmal.

THE DIOCESE OF AUSTIN CELEBRATES 75TH ANNIVERSARY
Commemorative Book: Treasures of the Diocese of Austin

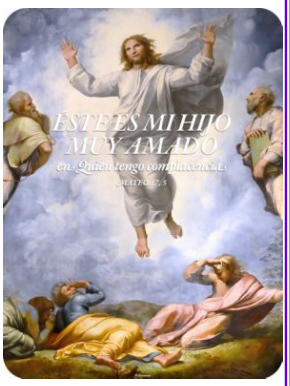
Commissioned by Bishop Joe S. Vásquez in celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Diocese of Austin, this beautifully bound book captures the history and images of our vast diocese. The "Treasures of the Diocese of Austin" book is a keepsake and will be a wonderful addition to every home.

The Books are available for purchase at Cristo Rey Parish Office and after Mass on the weekend.

Libro Conmemorativo del 75to Aniversario: Tesoros de la Diócesis de Austin

Comisionado por el Obispo Vásquez en celebración de nuestro 75to. Aniversario, este libro bellamente encuadernado captura la historia y las imágenes de nuestra vasta diócesis. Fotos de todas las parroquias, misiones, conventos, escuelas, hospitales y más viven en esta compilación. El libro "Tesoros de la Diócesis de Austin" es un recuerdo especial y será una magnifica adición a cualquier hogar.

Los libros están disponibles para comprar en la Oficina Parroquial y después de Misa los fines de semana.



Catholic Social Teaching Corner: This week we move from temptation in the desert to transfiguration and glory. Early in our Lenten journey we are given a hint of the resurrection. But first we must recognize the truth of St. Paul – that all of us are called to bear our share of hardship for the Gospel. Perhaps the mountain we must climb with Christ is one of sharing our time or ourselves with others. Perhaps we are called to greater simplicity of life and generous sharing of our material possessions. Each of us is called to die to self to live for Christ. What death must we die to share in Christ's glory?

Esta semana nos trasladamos de la tentación en el desierto a la transfiguración y Gloria. Anteriormente, en nuestro viaje de Cuaresma se nos dio una señal de la resurrección. Pero primero debemos reconocer la verdad de San Pablo – que todos estamos llamados a cargar nuestra parte de dificultad del Evangelio. Tal vez la montaña que debemos escalar con Cristo es la de compartir nuestro tiempo y a nosotros mismos con otros. Tal vez estamos llamados a una mayor simplicidad de vida y a compartir generosamente nuestras posesiones materiales. Cada uno de nosotros está llamado a morir para nosotros mismos para vivir por Cristo ¿Qué muerte debemos morir para compartir la gloria de Dios?

Second Sunday of Lent / Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

We are reminded as Christians, especially during Lent, that we are called to follow Christ. That is to say, called to follow his examples and put into practice his Gospel teachings. In today's Gospel, Jesus brings three of his Apostles (Peter, James, John) to a mountain top, and there miraculously he is transfigured in their presence. As the Gospel relates: "His face shown like the sun and his clothes became white as light." Well, before this incident, Jesus was below with his Apostles. St. Peter, inspired by the Holy Spirit, correctly declared the identity of Jesus: "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God" (Matt.16, 16). The Apostles realized then that Jesus was not any ordinary preacher or faith healer. He was truly the long-awaited Messiah of the Jewish people. And they also realized that because he is the Messiah, they must be with him and follow him. In the transfiguration a bright cloud cast a shadow over the Apostles, and a voice came from the cloud saying: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." In order for the Apostles to follow Christ, they must listen to him. And that certainly holds true for all Christians for all ages. So, are we listening to Jesus? Jesus founded his Church to help us listen to him. Jesus teaches us through his Church. So, are we listening to the Church's teachings? Or are we like some of those Catholics who listen, but only pick or choose the teaching they like. And the ones they don't like, they set aside and ignore. Well, we can't to that. We must be sincere and honest with God. May our Lent help us to accept all that Jesus teaches us through his Holy Catholic Church!

SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Al terminar el tiempo de navidad, una vez más encontramos en el Evangelio de hoy al profeta, San Juan Bautista. Jesús está por empezar su ministerio público. Ante el pueblo reunido, Juan Bautista anuncia en la presencia de Jesús: "Este es el Cordero de Dios, el que quita el pecado del mundo." Esas palabras fueron bien acogidas por el pueblo judío. El Cordero los hizo recordar del cordero sacrificado en el Antiguo Testamento (Éxodo 12), cuya sangre, untada en los dinteles de las casas de los Israelitas, los salvó del ángel vengador. Y, después los liberó de la esclavitud a los egipcios. Este es el origen del Cordero Pascual. Ahora, Jesús es el nuevo Cordero Pascual, cuya sangre derramada, salvará no solamente a Israel, sino también a toda la humanidad de sus pecados. En el Antiguo Testamento los judíos comían la carne del Cordero Pascual. Ahora en cada Misa, la Iglesia ofrece este mismo sacrificio de Jesús, el nuevo Cordero Pascual, y nos invita a comer su carne (Sagrada Comunión). Así es que, es muy significativo que, a la mera hora de recibir la Santa Comunión, el sacerdote eleva la Sagrada Hostia y repite esas mismas palabras de Juan Bautista: "Este es el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo." Que nuestra respuesta sea hecha con la mas profunda humildad y adoración: "Señor, no soy digno de que entres en mi casa, pero una palabra suya bastará para sanarme." Cuando decimos esas palabras, ¡Qué las digamos con la más profunda convicción y fe posible!
