Attention

We have a few changes regarding the Ad page in the Bulletin. We are in the process of getting new Ads and will be placing a Color Ad insert in the Bulletin verses the back page, as we hope to have a lot of Ads. The prices have also changed since we have been getting feedback that we are too high!

The back page will be used for our Parishioners to place acknowledgements such as Birthdays, Anniversaries, Special Prayers, etc... Pricing for that will be $5.00 for one weeks Ad. If you wish to keep it for the month it will only be $15.00 which saves you $5.00. Those will be in black and white only. Thank You!!

To be a prophet is not always a nice role in life! Today we hear the Prophet Amos telling others that he is not a prophet nor does he belong to a company of prophets. We can understand the being a prophet had become a job in his time, and perhaps a well-paying job. People were willing to sign up to this kind of work of being a prophet.

Amos wants us to know that he is called by God to prophesy. He has not chosen to be a prophet. Instead, God has placed this terrible duty on him and he would rather not do it. There are always at least three element in being a prophet: this inner call which must be from God and not just some kind of emotional or mental problem, ultimate acceptance by those who hear and can realize that the prophet speaks the truth from God and then finally the confirmation of history that what was prophesied was true.

The Gospel teaching today comes from the same type of prophetic teaching. The basic lesson is that if people don't want to hear what you have to say from God, then move on to those who are interested. How different this is from so many modern day prophets who become aggressive in telling others that they must listen!

So much of what is taught today in our Catholic Church is surely prophetic in the sense of proclaiming the truth, of proclaiming God's word in Scripture, of proclaiming how God has worked in Scripture and in His Church. Proclaiming these truths is less and less accepted by civil society. Even those who claim to be members of the Church do not want to hear clear teachings proclaimed.

We are in need of GREETERS, LECTORS, and EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS!

There was a Census update form in last weeks Bulletin. If you did not receive one, they are available in the Vestibule.

Please fill it out and sign up on the bottom of the Census Form to be a Lector, Greeter and Eucharistic Minister.

ALL Eucharistic Ministers must take a certification class which will be in the Fall. We will announce the date as soon as possible. Class will be at Holy Spirit Church.

Many great Catholic teachers have been silenced in history and had the humility to accept such silencing because they believed that God's truth was stronger than any silence and would ultimately prevail. Today there is almost a belief that the one who shouts the loudest has the truth or the one who is most popular has the truth.

We have many conflicting voices in our modern world, many of them claiming to show that God wants us to walk in entirely new directions. We Catholics have always accepted and believed in a teaching authority within the Church. That teaching authority today is a prophetic voice in the midst of chaos and confusion. Because that teaching authority is so clear, the forces of modern society are working with great efforts to destroy any acceptance of teaching authority within our Catholic Church.

Perhaps for all of us, the basic lesson of today's readings is that in Christ Jesus we also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of salvation, have believed in Him. Once we have faith in the Lord Jesus, we begin to work at a different level of listening. We must listen first to revealed Scripture, not to the demands of the modern age. We must listen to the Church and not let the scandals and sins of people in the Church pull us away from the truth proclaimed in the Church. We must listen to the authentic teachers in the Church: the Pope and the Bishops and the lay people in union with them.

Not all who claim to be prophets are the prophets of God. Not all who come preaching modern words should be accepted into our homes. Let us listen with discerning minds and hearts. Let us walk with our Lord and with His Church, knowing that in Jesus and His Church are the words of everlasting life.
