Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
“Blessed are you when people hate you...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man.” (LUKE 6:22) All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn’t want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

 ~ Friends of St. Louis Corner ~
~ Warm your heart and soul at the St. Louis Soup Social on February 26th after the 5pm Mass. This event is free of charge – donations welcome! We hope to see you there!

 Catholic Free Press Subscription
If you would like to receive the Catholic Free Press or continue receiving your subscription, please send your name in a marked envelope with your donation or use your “Diocesan Communications Ministry” parish envelope. The annual cost remains at $39.00 per year. Your contribution to help pay for your home delivery is appreciated. Thanks!

Scripture Study at St. Ann’s Church
