Readings for July 15

Amos 7: 12-15. Ephesians 1: 3-14. Mark 6: 7-13

JULY 8, 2018

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

If I was to begin with saying that it has been a hot few days - would I be stating a worn out phrase that you have heard all too often? I remarked this morning to one of the sacristans after Mass that before we had air conditioners we managed to survive the heat. I remember lying in bed at night with a sheet over top of me and fanning the sheet to create an air flow. Or I remember making sure that wherever I sat that I would benefit from the air flow from the fan in the house. We are creatures who complain so well. I keep reminding myself that this is the weather that we hoped for in January and here we are complaining. God forgive me for this pettiness.

Next Sunday is our Family of Parishes Picnic. I am looking forward to seeing many of you at the Park and having an opportunity of spending the time having a good old fashioned time together. If you haven't been to a Parish Picnic it is a wonderful time to meet your fellow parishioners in a different scenario than in Church. Come and enjoy this time and if you haven't filled out your reservation form for food - call Michelle or Maureen and book your order.

As we enjoy the summer I ask a favor of you. Can you assist me in bringing names to me to serve on the new Parish Pastoral Council that will begin in September. I am asking you if you wish to bring a name forward to speak to the person you will nominate to me before giving me their name. I am grateful to the Transition Team who has assisted me in this last year bring the Family of Parishes on target. The members of the Transition Team were: Doug Gutteridge, Denise Emery, Carmen Gagnier, Lonnie Sannes, Anne Foster, Tim Raaymakers, Sue Bates, and Cathy Laforet. These parishioners have been a huge help in moving us forward and I am grateful to them for all their hard work. Now I am looking forward to working with a group of eight to ten parishioners who will assist me in bringing more vitality to the Family of Parishes.
