Readings for April 7

Ezekiel 37: 12-14. Romans 8: 8-11.
John 11: 1-45.

MARCH 31, 2019
FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

I was caught with a time line this week and so I decided to take an easy way to share with you. Here are some “funnies” that were shared with me by a parishioner.

Teacher: How old is your father?

Kid: He is six years old.

Teacher: What! How is that possible?

Kid: He only became a father when I was born.

---

Teacher: Maria, go to the map and find North America.

Maria: Here it is.

Teacher: Correct. Now class, who discovered North America?

Class: Maria.

Teacher: Glenn, how do you spell ‘Crocodile’?

Glenn: K R O K O D I A L

Teacher: No. that is wrong.

Glenn: Maybe, it is wrong but you asked me how to spell it.

Teacher: Donald, what is the correct formula for water?

Donald: H I J K L M N O

Teacher: What are you talking about?

Donald: Yesterday you said it is H to O.

---

Teacher: Clyde, your composition on ‘My Dog’ is exactly the same as your brother’s. Did you copy his?

Clyde: No, sir. It’s the same dog.

Teacher: What do you call a person who keeps on talking when people are no longer interested?

Harold: A teacher.

NOW THAT’S A GOOD QUESTION

What is meant by observing the Easter Duty?

You may be familiar with the term “Easter Duty” and relate it to the obligation to go to confession and receive Holy Communion during the Easter season. If you already have a habit of regular confession and Communion, you can fulfill the obligation without much effort. If not, it is worthwhile to recall what the Church requires and why.

When considering our sacramental duties, we should first realize that the Church proposes certain rules and requirements to help us grow in grace and get to heaven.

For those who grew up in a traditional Catholic household, it may be surprising to learn that the term “Easter Duty” does not appear in the Church’s canon law, nor is it mentioned specifically in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Rather, the idea stems from two related Church laws: to receive the Eucharist at least once a year during the Easter season, unless a serious reason indicates another time as preferable (canon 920); and to receive absolution in sacramental confession for any mortal sin at least once a year (canon 989).

Of course, this is the minimum required by the Church, and today most practicing Catholics receive Communion during not only the Easter season (broadly defined as the period from the First Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday) but also many other times of the year.

Less popular, however, is the practice of confession, so let us look more closely at that sacrament.

Call it what you will – penance, confession, reconciliation – the Catechism teaches that this sacrament has many effects, the foremost of which is “restoring us to God’s grace and joining us with him in an intimate friendship” (1468). Sin damages our relationship with God. Reconciliation rooted in humble contrition restores it. For good reason, the formula for absolution begins with the words, “God, the Father of mercies.”

Sin also breaks our bonds with others in the Church. We sow discord and distrust, and disrupt our union with the Body of Christ, when we choose to love ourselves over our neighbours. Reconciliation restores those links that we share with the ones we love and the ones we should love more.

The aspect of the sacrament that many shrink from – the difficult practice of telling my sins to another person – has become one of the most reassuring for me. On my own, I can fool myself and excuse my sins, thinking that at least I haven’t killed anybody. But the very act of confessing in the presence of a priest makes my examination of conscience deeper and more honest. In the sacrament, God truly acts through the priest, which makes the parting words, “Go in peace,” all the more powerful and consoling.

We don’t deserve and cannot earn God’s forgiveness, yet he gives it for the asking. In the sacrament of reconciliation, we drink from the depths of Divine Mercy, where God replenishes us with the graces needed to live in and act out of love each day. Considering that we are reborn spiritually in confession and fortified by grace in Holy Communion, we should think of our Easter Duty as an opportunity to become the better person God calls us to be.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE

Share the journey with those forcibly displaced in Colombia

In Colombia, over 6.5 million people have been forcibly displaced due to conflict, violence, natural disasters, and development projects. With your support, Development and Peace’s partner the National Agrarian Coordination (NAC) is working with Indigenous women, many of whom are victims of forced displacement, to help them gain the skills and confidence to be intermediaries with the authorities. By promoting inclusive and participatory democracies, we are addressing one of the root causes of forced migration!

Next week is Solidarity Sunday, when the Share Lent collection in support of the work of Development and Peace will take place. Your generosity has a real impact on the lives of our sisters and brothers in the Global South!

Donations to Development and Peace may be made by calling 1-888-234-8533 or by visiting the organization’s website at devp.org.

LECTIO DIVINA FOR LENT

Lectio Divina is a form of meditation rooted in our liturgical celebration, which dates back to the Benedictine order, in the early monastic community. It is a method practiced by the monks in their daily encounter with scripture, both as they prepared for the Eucharist, and as they prayed the Divine office or Liturgy of the Hours.

The Latin phrase "lectio divina" can be translated as divine reading. As one reads, one invites the Word to become that transforming lens, which brings the events of daily living into focus. We can then come to live a deeper spiritual life, finding God's presence readily in the events of daily life.

Lectio Divina follows a four step process:

1. Lectio (reading)
2. Meditation (meditation)
3. Contemplatio (contemplation)
4. Oratio (prayer)

We have the opportunity to have Fr. Danny Santos from Good Shepherd parish in Lakeshore, to lead us in Cardinal Tom Collins style of lectio.

I hope you will be able to join us at Blessed Sacrament Church on:

Monday, April 1 at 7 pm

Come to our Chatham Catholic Family of Parishes Lenten series "Lectio Divina", enter into, and expand your prayer and spiritual horizons. I look forward to seeing you there.

DAY OF CONFESSIONS

This year's Diocesan Day of Confessions is being planned for Wednesday, April 10. This special opportunity helps us to set aside our old ways, to be renewed in heart and soul, and to be reconciled with our merciful and loving God. As Pope Francis reminds us, confession is where we encounter Jesus.

Confession times in our parish are:

9:00 am until noon at St. Ursula,

12 noon until 3:00 pm at St. Joseph,

3:00 pm until 6:00 pm at St. Agnes and

6:00 pm until 9:00 pm at Blessed Sacrament

Our diocesan website (www.dol.ca) offers some excellent resources and information about Lent and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

REFUGEE UPDATE

The Chatham Catholic Family of Parishes, this year, is sponsoring and expecting our last family of Syrian refugees. We await the arrival of Jamal Mourad, his wife and five children ages 6 to 24.

Through your generosity we have on hand some furniture and finances for 10 months. Our sponsorship is for 12 months. We still need finances for two months sponsorship which is approximately $5,000.00, if we can find a four bedroom house with reasonable rent.

Also we need: three single beds and bedding, vacuum cleaner or electric broom, window curtains and shower curtain, freezer, stove, refrigerator, washer, dryer and toiletries.

Clothes: boys ages 6, 8; girls age 14 and 19 and three adults.

To avoid duplication of large furnishings and clothes please email eleanor@kent.net indicating your donation. Once we know the arrival date of the family, the larger items will need to be delivered to their house.

For monetary donations: cheques or cash to St. Agnes Church - refugee ministry

Volunteers for house hunting and setting the furniture is always appreciated, let Eleanor know if you feel called to this ministry.

Thank you for your continuous support of refugees.

Our Present Refugee Families celebrated Arabic Mother's Day on March 21, 2019

It is with grateful hearts that these refugees whom the Chatham Catholic Family of Parishes welcomed in December 2015, October 2016 and November 2016 wish you many blessings.

They pray for each of you and never stop thanking God for your generosity and their good fortune to be in Canada, in Chatham.
