Readings for September 8

Wisdom 9: 13-18. Philemon 9b-10, 12-17.
Luke 14: 25-33.

SEPTEMBER 1, 2019
TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This weekend at all Masses the three priests will be making this appeal for funds to assist in the resettlement of a new family from Syria. They will be coming in late October or early November. I have included this text so that you can have a printed copy of what we have said. Happy Labour Day!

The world is facing the biggest refugee crisis since World War II, a staggering 60 million people displaced from their homes, four million from Syria alone. World leaders have abdicated their responsibility for this unlucky population, around half of whom are children.

The situation is sadly reminiscent of that of refugees fleeing the destruction of World War II and the Nazi onslaught. Then, too, most governments turned their backs, and millions who were trapped perished.

We are mired in a set of myopic, stingy and cruel policies. The few global institutions dedicated to supporting this population are starved of resources as governments either haven't funded them or have reneged on their pledges of funds. Wealthy and powerful nations aren't doing their part; the United States, for example, has taken fewer than 1,000 refugees from Syria.

In Iraq, the United Nations announced that a "paralyzing" funding shortfall was causing it to shutter health care services, directly affecting a million people. That means that hundreds of thousands of children will not be vaccinated against polio and measles – a terrifying development risking the resurgence of these diseases in the already devastated region. The United Nations High Commission for Refugees calculates that 750,000 Syrian children in neighboring countries are out of school simply for lack of money. One result has been a huge rise in child labour, with girls in their early teens (or even younger) being married off.

Children are resilient, when given a chance. It's a shame how few are.

Of the four million refugees from Syria, about two million are in Turkey and one million in Lebanon. The wars in the region may widen.

We hear Jesus say, "I was a stranger and you welcomed me." (Matthew 35:35)

He continues in saying, "I was homeless and you cared for me."

In January 2012, bombs fell on Homs, Syria, destroying homes, schools, businesses and their way of life. Jamal, Seba and their five children (two are now young adults) escaped to Lebanon. They have been living in very crowded conditions with no schooling, little work and an unsafe neighbourhood.

This is the family we will be sponsoring - paying for their needs for one year. To rent a four bedroom house, start-up costs, utilities, food, clothing, schooling, the cost comes to $40,000 for the year. Thanks to your generosity in the past we have $33,850 as well as donations of furniture.

I appeal to you to once again be generous in donations to assist this new family in their relocation to our city. A collection envelope is in your bulletin this weekend and will be available at the doors of the church during September. We will accept your donations throughout the month of September.

The family is due to arrive at the end of October. God bless us as we welcome these brothers and sisters of ours to our community.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Seeking Humility

- Reading I Sirach 3: 17-18, 28-29
(humility)
- Reading II Hebrews 12: 18-19, 22-24a
(God the judge; Jesus the mediator)
- Gospel Luke 14: 1, 7-14
(a lesson in humility)

Key Passage: Jesus said, "But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." (Luke 14: 13-14)

Adult: Has the hunger for status and influence in the world around you endangered your life as a Christian?

Child: Does it make you a better person to be chosen first for a team or some other honour? Why or why not?

Congratulations to Andrew and Deborah Bossy who celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary on September 1.

Congratulations to Robert and Dawn Finlin who celebrate their 46th wedding anniversary on September 1.

TRY ALPHA!

Explore life, faith and God in a friendly, open, informal environment.

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a series of gatherings. Over dinner, video and conversation we explore the basics of the Christian faith. No two Alphas look the same. Alpha runs in coffee shops, churches, bars, prisons, universities, schools and homes around the world. No two are the same. Go to our website ccfp.dol for more info, or better yet, talk to someone who attended our first Alpha!

Who is it for?

Alpha is for anyone who is curious. Each session looks at a different question and is designed to create conversation. There's no pressure and no charge. It's just an open informal and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together.

How does it work?

Each session begins with supper, followed by a video and discussion where you can share your thoughts and questions.

WHEN? Begins at 6:00 pm
Wednesday, September 18

WHERE? Blessed Sacrament Hall
145 Victoria Avenue

Questions and Registration?

Colleen at 519-352-8530 or ckeane@dol.ca

What some of our past participants have to say...

..."All the videos were very good and I learned more about my faith. What made the difference was how the group of people interacted."

..."Very good experience, new friendships, able to talk more freely about my religious experiences."

..."We had some very good discussions - sharing our faith, respecting others views. Our group was very open and accepting. The videos were a great starting point for discussion. Sharing a meal helped to build trust and friendship within our group. Excellent experience!"

Do you have a loved one who is in hospital, confined to their home, in a long term care facility or at Hospice?
