Readings for November 10

2 Maccabees 7: 1-2, 7, 9-14. 2 Thessalonians 2: 16-3: 5.
Luke 20: 27-38

NOVEMBER 3, 2019
THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

A GREAT AND GLORIOUS GOD

Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God's glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to "the LORD of the whole universe." Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God's greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonian Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke's Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent of his sins and glorify God.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Every week, some treasures from our tradition are shared here. Where does all this history come from? The history of God's people of prayer is always coming to light, mostly because scholars have dedicated their lives to research. They translate and ponder prayers and songs; explore the places used for worship; look at the vessels, books, and vestments; and read works from legal documents to letters and diaries. In the 1930s, Hitler's rush to arm Germany closed seminaries as priests and seminarians alike were drafted into service.

One professor, Father Josef Jungman, forced from his classroom, spent the war years in an Austrian library. His careful work disclosed much of what we know of the history of the Mass. His great work, The Mass of the Roman Rite, describes the evolution of Eucharistic celebration and inspired generations of scholars to explore a tradition surprisingly rich and varied. It was said of him that he had a command of the past that cast new light on the present, and opened up a clear direction to the future. His contributions to the Second Vatican Council helped shape the way that we worship today. At the end of his life, in 1975, his studies completed, he told a friend that he was waiting patiently for the Lord's knock at the door to take him to the heavenly banquet.

THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

You will notice a BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE at each worship site near the sanctuary. Please take time to write the names of a loved one in these books as we will remember them at each of the Masses we celebrate during the month of November. It is a beautiful way to remember and honour our loved ones. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. AMEN.

CHURCH BELLS RINGING AT BLESSED SACRAMENT

Recently, our custodian Brian has had people enquire about the ringing of the bells at Blessed Sacrament and why they ring like they do. We do not ring the hours, we ring the Angelus. Here is a little explanation of what the Angelus is.

The real significance of this pattern is not a hidden symbolism - Trinitarian or otherwise - but the likelihood that it reflects the origins of the Angelus. This thrice-daily devotion in the Western Church has its roots in the spirituality and practice of the medieval Church, when the sound of bells constantly summoned both members of monastic communities and layfolk to set times of daily prayer.

Several monastic customs mention a custom of ringing three separate peals of bells before some of the daily offices to call the brethren to assemble for what were known as the tres orationes. It seems that, once again, the laity were encouraged to associate their prayers with those of the monks, but, instead of their elaborate orations, the well-known Ave Maria became the lay people's choice.

It seems feasible that in this way the Angelus evolved, and the pattern of the nine bells from late evening devotion was joined to the triple peals at the morning and midday observance.

To the parents of our young children, may we suggest.....

Rules? God put the wiggle in children. Don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house. All are welcome.

Sit toward the front where it is easier for your little ones to see and hear what's going on at the altar.
They tire of seeing the backs of other's heads.

Quietly explain the parts of the Mass and actions of the priests, altar servers, choirs etc.

Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses.
Children learn liturgical behaviour by copying you.

If you have to leave Mass with your child,
feel free to do so, but please come back.
As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."

Remember that the way we welcome in church directly affects the way we respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.

To the members of our parish...

The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our parish is growing.

Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.
