Readings for December 1

Isaiah 2: 1-5. Romans 13: 11-14. Matthew 24: 37-44.

NOVEMBER 24, 2019
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE

REFLECTION

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Saviour of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Saviour of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgement. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Saviour of all.

DID YOU RECEIVE OUR CHRISTMAS CARD?

This week you should receive our Advent Mailout, which includes our Christmas schedule in a Christmas card. If you did not receive this card, that means we do not have your current address or you are not registered with the family of parishes. Please contact Cathy Zimmer at 519-352-9483 or by email at czimmer@dol.ca and let her know if you did not receive it. Also, if your address or phone number has changed (maybe you no longer have a home phone?), please let Cathy know as well.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE FALL CAMPAIGN

You are invited....

"The native Amazonian peoples have probably never been so threatened on their own lands as they are now". - Pope Francis, Peru, January 2018. He invites us to greater responsibility and urgent action. DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE is inviting all interested to an evening workshop on the subject with Rebecca Rathborne, the interdiocesan facilitator. It will start with a free will offering, supper at 6 pm on Tuesday, November 26 at St. Agnes church hall. All are welcome!

CHRIST THE KING

True Authority

Reading I	2 Samuel 5: 1-3 (David king of Israel)
Reading II	Colossians 1: 12-20 (Christ's fullness and reconciliation)
Gospel	Luke 23: 35-43 (the crucifixion; the king of the Jews)

Key Passage: For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was please to reconcile to himself all things ...

Adult: Following the example of Jesus, what is the best way to exercise your authority over others?

Child: What qualities would a good leader have? Which of these are you trying to develop?

ST. AGNES ST. VINCENT DE PAUL AND WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

Pope Francis declared the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time as The World Day of the Poor (November 17, 2019) when “we are encouraged to consider the less fortunate than ourselves and give generously what we can.”

Through generosity of our parishioners in 2018 we distributed vouchers for food, clothing, household goods to 132 adults and 43 children; as well as donations to St. Agnes School, Soup Kitchen, Refugee Program and visits with florals to shutins.

Volunteers are needed. If you would like to be involved in this worthwhile and rewarding service (time commitment approximately 3 hours per month) please contact the office.

Thank you to all for your ongoing support and prayers.

CHURCH CHUCKLE

A nurse on the pediatric ward, before listening to the little ones' chests, would plug the stethoscope into their ears and let them listen to their own heart. Their eyes would always light up with awe, but she never got a response equal to four-year old David.

Gently she tucked the stethoscope into his ears and placed the disk over his heart. "Listen," she said, "What do you suppose that is?"

He drew his eyebrows together in a puzzled line and looked up as if lost in the mystery of the strange tap - tap - tapping deep in his chest. Then his face broke out in a wondrous grin and he asked, "Is that Jesus knocking?"
