SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FAMILY UPDATE FROM FR. JOHN

FAMILY OFFICE NOW OPEN

With the province entering stage 3 of the re-opening plan, we have been given direction from the diocese to open our offices when we are ready. Our office located at St. Agnes Parish is now open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 8 am to 5 pm (closed from 12 - 1pm for lunch). The office will remain closed on Wednesdays to answer phone calls and emails of people registering for Mass. We will still have some staff working from home and coming in when needed to complete tasks. We continue to answer the phone and respond to emails seeking to serve you the best we can. I want to thank our amazing admin staff for their dedication and hard work continuing to adapt in these changing times.

TED ONLINE RETREAT - BE THE CHANGE

I will be offering an online retreat starting in August (more information at our website) that combines 5 TED talks (Technology—Entertainment—Design) focussed on being real change in our world today. I have changed TED to mean Transformation—Evangelization—Discipleship. This is a free retreat open to everyone that includes a TED talk, video reflection, scripture, prayer and an optional online/call in discussion each week. See the link at the family website for more information.

NEW ONLINE STORIES ON THE WAY!

We have two amazing summer students, Meagan and Mary, who are working hard helping in the office, with our outreach ministries, learning about the Church and parish ministry. They are also developing an interview podcast series looking at the Catholic faith from a youth perspective in addition to sharing stories about our family of parishes. We are also preparing video interviews with Meagan and Mary in addition to Fr. Dariusz and Fr. Robert getting to know all of them more!! Stay tuned!!!

A Message from Bishop Fabbro about Residential Schools and Relations with Canada's Indigenous People

All Canadians are deeply concerned and angry about the discovery of children's remains at burial sites of former residential schools in British Columbia and Saskatchewan. Parishioners have written me about the Church's involvement in the residential schools and the demand for a papal apology. At the end of May, when the horrifying discovery was made of the remains of children at the Kamloops residential school, I issued a statement promising our prayers for the families and survivors and expressing our commitment to play "a constructive role in the journey towards healing and reconciliation". I would like to draw your attention to a couple of recent statements that have been published by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops.

The statement on June 10 explains the work the bishops have been doing for several years now with Indigenous Peoples from across Canada. I encourage you to read the statement at this link. It has been important for the bishops to sit down with Indigenous communities, in "listening circles", to hear their stories and to listen to what they need from the Catholic Church for reconciliation. It also is important that Indigenous voices lead the process.

A key initiative arising from these conversations is the pastoral visit of Indigenous Peoples with Pope Francis that will take place December 17-20 in Rome. The group, which will include residential school survivors, Elders and youth, will be able to dialogue directly with the pope, and he will be able to express to them "his heartfelt closeness, address the impact of colonization and the implications of the Church in the residential schools, so as to respond to the suffering of Indigenous Peoples and the ongoing effects of intergenerational trauma".

For the bishops, the conversations we have had with Indigenous Peoples, the work we are doing together and the delegation that will visit with the pope are steps on the journey of reconciliation and healing. The hope is that these common efforts will build bridges and new relationships between Indigenous Peoples and the Catholic Church in Canada, and lead to further action.

All of these statements, including my own, and resources about this important issue are available on the Diocese of London website at this link.

FIRST WORLD DAY OF GRANDPARENTS AND ELDERLY

One day before the Feast Day of Saints Joachim and Anne, grandparents of Jesus, Pope Francis has established the first World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly to be celebrated on July 25, 2021. Pope Francis has chosen the theme “I am with you every day” (Mt. 28.20) to express the closeness of the Lord and Church to every elderly person; and as a topic of hope that all persons - young and old - can share together.

PRAYER FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence:
even in times of loneliness,
You are my hope and my confidence,
You have been my rock
and my fortress since my youth!

I thank You for having given me a family
and for having blessed me with a long life.
I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty,
for the dreams that have already come true in my life
and for those that are still ahead of me.

I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me.

Increase, O Lord, my faith,
make me a channel of your peace,
teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me,
to never stop dreaming
and to tell of your wonders to new generations.

Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church,
that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth.

Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed,
the poor consoled and wars ended.

Sustain me in weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me,
in the certainty that you are with me every day,
even until the end of the age.

Amen.

DEACON'S PEN

In my last Deacon Pen I highlighted an issue that affects us all. The horrible attack on four Muslims that killed Talat Afzaal, 74, her son Salman Afzaal, 46, his wife Madiha Salman, 44, and their 15 year old daughter Yumna Salman. The son, 9 year old Fayez is left to live alone, deprived of the love and togetherness of family.

The world is a complicated and a selfish place. We can only overcome people differences, especially like Islamophobia by getting to know one another. We break down the walls by forming relationships.

But as we read now in the press, this is not the only problem facing us - and we, as Catholics have a worse situation to confront - how our Catholic institutions affected Indigenous peoples and allowed hundreds to live and die lonely deaths in schools because government and church lacked understanding and acceptance of people different from us.

One can ask, "How could this have happened in a Christian institution?" Maybe I am too much of a realist because I believe it can happen in any institution. All humans make mistakes. And now positive and just corrective actions are needed. And these corrective actions can only be done by working together!

Hatred and/or inappropriate responses to others often comes from misconceptions and a lack of understanding---Jesus sought relationships with others and embraced them---we as bearers of the Good News are called to support and build up the world by loving one another and seeing each other as gift to us and the world. We need to connect with those we do not know---when we get to know others --- especially those different than ourselves, we realize that we have more in common than any differences.

Deacon Chris Masterson

CHURCH CHUCKLE

After dinner one night, I asked my son Jimmy to fetch a broom from the back porch so I could sweep the floor. Complaining, he said, "But it's dark out there. I'm afraid."

I said to him, "It's okay, God is with you."

Slowly Jimmy opened the porch door and said, "God, if you're out there, would you hand me the broom?"
