FAMILY UPDATES

By Fr. John

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY - SUNDAY APRIL 24, 2022

As we enter into Holy Week with Palm Sunday this weekend, we anticipate celebrating the glory and joy of the Resurrection of Christ, who gives us the gift of eternal life!!

We will be celebrating a special liturgy for Divine Mercy on Sunday April 24, 2022 at 3:00 pm at St. Joseph Church. We invite all of you to attend!! I am thankful to Deacon Steve and his team for organizing and leading this powerful celebration. I know that many in our family of parishes have a strong and deep devotion to St. Faustina and Divine Mercy.

I have had the opportunity to travel to Krakow, Poland and pray at the Divine Mercy Shrine on a number of occasions taking the time to pray before the tomb of St. Faustina. It is a place of grace, love and of course mercy! One day soon I hope to organize another pilgrimage to Poland and visit the shrine again. It is a great sign of hope in our world.

WHAT IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY?

The Feast of Divine Mercy is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday April 24 this year) which concludes the Octave of Easter. This feast is based on the devotion to Divine Mercy that St. Faustina Kowalska (a Polish nun and saint) reported as part of her encounter with Jesus, and is associated with special promises from Jesus and plenary indulgences declared by the Church.

St. Faustina had personal visions and visitations from Jesus and had conversations with him. He asked her to paint the vision of his merciful love being poured out from his Sacred Heart and specifically asked for a feast of Divine Mercy be established on the first Sunday after Easter Sunday so that humanity would take refuge in him.

"My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The souls that go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment...It is my desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the First Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy."

(St. Faustina Diary 699)

St. John Paul II declared Divine Mercy Sunday during the homily for the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska on April 30, 2000 in Rome. In his homily he said,

"Today my joy is truly great in presenting the life and witness of Sr. Faustina Kowalska to the whole church as a gift of God for our time...It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called 'Divine Mercy Sunday'"

St. John Paul II concludes his homily by saying:

"And you, Faustina, a gift of God to our time, a gift from the land of Poland to the whole Church, obtain for us an awareness of the depth of divine mercy; help us to have a living experience of it and to bear witness to it among our brothers and sisters...Today, fixing our gaze with you on the face of the Risen Christ, let us make our own your prayer of trusting abandonment and say with firm hope: Christ Jesus, I trust in you!"

WHAT IS A PLENARY INDULGENCE?

St. John Paul II not only declared Divine Mercy Sunday a universal feast of the Church, but in 2002 he attached a plenary indulgence to it offering special graces and blessings for the faithful. A plenary or full indulgence offers the faithful who fulfill certain conditions God's immense mercy, forgiveness of sins and removes all temporal punishment for sins. There are many different ways to receive a plenary indulgence which includes those for Divine Mercy.

The usual conditions for every plenary (full) indulgence:

- (1) Sacramental confession within about 20 days before or after
- (2) Reception of communion on the day or days before or after
- (3) Prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father

Here are the specific conditions for the Divine Mercy indulgence:

- (1) In any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy
- (2) or in the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (example—Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!)

RECEIVING AND SHARING MERCY

Divine Mercy Sunday reminds us that we need to seek Christ's mercy through the gift of the Eucharist, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the many different devotions that shower us with grace. Not only are we called to receive that love and mercy, but may it transform us to offer love, mercy and peace to those around us needing light and hope.

Our celebration on Sunday April 24th at St. Joseph Church will include Divine Mercy devotions with the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please mark your calendars and join us!! We will also be live-streaming this event.

LISTENING SESSIONS

For a synodal Church
communion | participation | mission

Dear friends in Christ:
Pope Francis has invited the faithful to share with him their experience of the Catholic Church as a preparation for the Synod (gathering) of Bishops in 2023 in Rome. Prior to this meeting, parishes from around the world have been asked to gather together the People of God to conduct "Listening Sessions." At these sessions, people listen to the Holy Spirit and to each other as they pray and discuss their experience of the Church. The Diocese of London will gather input from these "Listening Sessions" and write a summary report to help us all learn how God is calling his Church to carry out her mission in the 21st century. You are invited to participate in one of these sessions and share your experiences of the Church, both ups and downs, as well as your hopes and dreams for the future.

The Synod "Listening Sessions" for Chatham:

Session #3: Tuesday, April 26 at 7:45 pm (Zoom)

Session #4: Saturday, April 30 at 12:30 pm
at St. Agnes Parish Hall

To register for one of these events, please go to the parish website at www.chathamcatholic.ca and find the Synod information on the homepage or the Bulletin/News menu. Sign up sheets will also be available at each Church. Please note that the registration deadline for Sessions 3 and 4 is Monday, April 25.

For those unavailable for these listening sessions or if they would prefer to make their views known individually, you are invited to go to: www.dol.ca/listening and fill out the self-guided reflection form. Your input is important to us!

Furthermore, and this is important, please spread the word about these "Listening Sessions" to others and invite them to register for one or to provide input online. These sessions are open to Catholic and non-Catholics, those who practice a particular religion and those who do not. We want to gather input from people from all backgrounds and walks of life!

Questions or comments? Please contact Fr. Robert Weaver at (519) 352-9483, ext. 224 or at rweaver@dol.ca.

DEACON'S PEN

Well, we have almost made it through Lent, and now we start Holy Week.

For most of my life, I called this particular Sunday, Palm Sunday.

Now little Johnny was sick on Palm Sunday and stayed home from Church with his mother. His father returned from church holding a palm branch. Little Johnny was curious and asked why his father why he had a palm. His father explained, "You see, when Jesus came into town, everyone waved palm branches to honor him; so, we got palm branches today." "Aw, shucks," grumbled Little Johnny. "The one Sunday I can't go to Church, and Jesus shows up!"

The Church celebrates both Palm Sunday and Passion Sunday at the same time. Today's liturgy combines contrasting moments of glory (the royal welcome given to Jesus by his followers), and suffering (the drama of his unjust trial, culminating in his crucifixion). Holy Week challenges us to remember and relive the events which brought about our redemption and salvation, to appreciate gratefully the price Jesus paid for our salvation, and to return God's love for us, expressed through the suffering and death of Jesus, by loving others. Our meditation on these Paschal mysteries should assist us in our dying to sin and rising with Jesus, resulting in our healing, reconciliation, and redemption. Proper participation in the Holy Week liturgy will also deepen our relationship with God, increase our faith and strengthen our lives as disciples of Jesus.

Peace and May God Bless you all.

Deacon Morgan

Pope Francis (Message for Lent 2021)

OUR FAMILY LENTEN JOURNEY: WEEK SIX

SACRIFICIAL LOVE

"Father, I put my life in your hands"

Holy Week is the most important week in the Church year! It is a time when we remember and celebrate in a special way, the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Sometimes we may think that this only happened to Jesus. But it also continues to happen to all of us who claim to be his followers. It is a reminder of who we are and what our own lives as Christians are all about.

Our families are called to holiness in our ordinary lives!

As we celebrate the mystery of Jesus passing from death to new life, we actually celebrate the same passing over in our own lives. Jesus' 'self-sacrifice' opened the way for us to share in new life. But this calls us to cooperate in God's divine plan. We must 'pass over' our own lives into God's hands and imitate the self-giving of God's Son. This is the way of life we are called to live.

"It is the PASSOVER of the Lord."

TO BE HOLY IS TO ALLOW THE SACRED TO SHINE THROUGH IN WHAT WE SAY AND WHAT WE DO.
THINK ABOUT THE WAYS IN WHICH THIS COULD BE A 'HOLY WEEK' FOR EACH OF YOU.

PALM SUNDAY

Jesus was welcomed into Jerusalem with cheers and palm branches like a king. There are two gospel stories on Palm Sunday. In one, we hear how Jesus is hailed 'king' but we also hear about his passion and death. We cannot separate the two...they are the same story. As we begin Holy Week, take some time to ponder how you are connected to Jesus' story. During this past year of pandemic, how have you experienced good times and difficult times? Tell Jesus about them.

HOSANNA!

HOLY THURSDAY

On this special night, we are reminded that God wanted to be so close to us, he wanted to nourish and feed us with His own Son. On Holy Thursday we hear how Jesus gave us the words of the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper:

'Take and eat, this is my Body'
'Take and drink, this is my blood'

Do this in remembrance of me.

The good news is that God continues to nourish us with his real presence both in his Word and the Holy Eucharist.

When supper was finished, Jesus taught his disciples to be servants of others by washing their feet. He taught them to be humble.

How have you experienced the real presence of Jesus in your life?

Tell each other about it.
How have you helped others without expecting rewards?

GOOD FRIDAY

On Good Friday, the whole Church mourns the death of our loving Saviour, Jesus. It is a day of quiet prayer and fasting. On this day, there is no Mass but instead we gather to venerate the Cross. We remember the great sacrifice Jesus made to give his life for all our sins so we might have eternal life with him some day.

We often pray the Stations of the Cross and think about how Jesus suffered without complaining because he knew this was what God wanted him to do.

You can watch Stations of the Cross on our website at www.ccfp.dol.ca

If you were standing at the foot of the Cross on which Jesus was hanging, what would you say to him?

What would you say to his mother, Mary? Spend some quiet time in front of a crucifix today.

EASTER VIGIL

Holy Saturday night is the holiest night of the year. Our journey through Lent is all finished and we light a special Easter fire outside of the Church. From this fire we will light the Paschal Candle. It is a symbol that Jesus is the light of the world. Sometimes new members of our Catholic faith are baptized during Mass. We are finally able to sing

'Alleluia, Christ is Risen!'
It is the greatest celebration of our faith. It is a celebration of

HOPE

Jesus always spoke about hope. He promised his disciples that he would conquer death. He told them God would stay with us at all times, in all places because God is the God of life! Imagine the shock and surprise when Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and found it empty. How would you feel if you saw that empty tomb? What are your hopes and dreams?

PUTTING OUR LENTEN JOURNEY INTO ACTION: THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS...WHILE IN YOUR HOUSE

A Catholic tradition, particularly during Holy Week, is to ponder the Passion and Death of Jesus on the way to Calvary. We invite you to ponder and pray each station and give thanks for the blessings you have been given during this pandemic.

1st Station: Jesus is Condemned

When you look at yourself and your Lenten journey, how did you and your family pray, give and fast? In what ways did your family grow? In what ways do you still need to improve?

8th Station : Jesus Meets the Women & Children

It's been such a long time since we've been able to see faces without masks and hug others. We've had to show love in other ways. I wonder if your family has found ways to get messages of hope to family and friends in new ways?

2nd Station: Jesus Takes Up His Cross

Both parents and children have had to work and learn at home. Some parents lost their jobs. Money is tight. What crosses has your family had to bear during the past year?

9th Station Jesus Falls The Third Time

Have you ever found yourself in your bedroom just before you go to sleep thinking about how lucky you are? How are some new ways this Lent that you and your family have thanked God? Did you have a GRATITUDE jar?

3rd Station: Jesus Falls the First Time

We are so lucky that most of us have enough to eat. But some families in our community and in the world are hungry. How have you shared with others in your community during this time of lockdown? Could you do more?

10th Station: Jesus Is Stripped of Garments

It's been a very cold winter. Most of us are so lucky to have warm homes and comfy clothes to wear. Has your family noticed some of our friends who are homeless? Has anyone in your family bought them a meal or given them gloves or even said 'hello' to them?

4th Station: Jesus Meets His Mother

Moms and Dads have made many sacrifices especially if they are essential workers. How have you found ways to say thank you to the people who are taking care of you and others? Have you thanked an essential worker?

11th Station: Jesus is Nailed To the Cross

When we have to live together day in and day out, there's bound to be a few arguments and irritations. Do you need to forgive anyone? Has someone said they are sorry to you?

5th Station: Simon Helps Jesus

We've all had to live in isolation and learn to do things more for each other. Sometimes we haven't wanted to. What new skills have you learned this past year? Have you helped at home without

12th Station: Jesus Dies on the Cross

Jesus died on a cross...for each one of us. He chose to make this sacrifice so we could have life everlasting when we die some day. I wonder what you have been willing to do for someone without expecting anything in return? Say thank you to Jesus for his love.

6th Station: Veronica Wipes Jesus' Face

There are times when we get so used to each other in our family, we don't notice when someone is having a bad day. How has someone cheered you up lately? Have you said thanks to anyone in your family lately?

13th Station: Jesus Is Taken Down

This pandemic has forced us to be away from our parish family and the table of the Lord. Now, your dinner table is the altar you pray at. Does your family pray together? If not, how do you think you can start?

7th Station: Jesus Falls The Second Time

Many of us have spent more time outside in our backyard or on a trail. But, we often fail to notice the miracle of creation. Has your family ever prayed to God while you take a walk?

14th Station: Jesus is Placed in the Tomb

Some families have had to say good-bye to relatives and friends who have died. We haven't been able to celebrate their lives like usual. Take out your photo albums and videos and look at their pictures. Share memories of better times...especially Easter memories!

YOU ARE INVITED!

The Italian Canadian Community of Chatham-Kent welcomes everyone to the Mass in Honour of Our Lady Mother of Grace on at St. Ursula Church on Sunday, April 24 at 2 pm.
