FAMILY UPDATES

By: Fr. John Jasica

CHRISTMAS IS CLOSE—ARE YOU EXCITED?

As we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent this weekend—we are entering the last days of preparation. We still have opportunities in the family of parishes to draw closer to Christ and create space for Him in our hearts this Christmas. It is definitely an exciting time getting ready for family, friends and of course the Lord who is the light of the world—always seeking to empower us as disciples.

CHATHAM CATHOLIC FAMILY OF PARISHES

LIVE-STREAM

(1) SUNDAY NIGHT ADVENT SERIES

Every Sunday night of Advent at 7 PM (at St. Ursula Church) we are hosting a holy hour of adoration discerning the GIFTS OF ADVENT which includes a reflection and confessions which start at 8 PM. The holy hour is live-streamed at www.chathamcatholic.tv

(2) ADVENT CONFESSIONS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is one of the most powerful ways to allow the light of Christ into our hearts in a very practical and real way. Please check the bulletin for times and places. Confession is a grace of healing and strength that is freely offered to us by Christ that will make Christmas perfect for us!!

(3) ADVENT PARISH MISSION WITH FR. ROSICA

In mid-November we welcomed Fr. Tom Rosica to lead us in a pre-Advent parish mission. It was a powerful time of prayer and reflection on the story of Christmas that we will soon experience again. Please follow this link to watch the evening sessions again—<https://revjj.ca/adventmission2022/>

(4) FORMED.ORG

This would best be described as Catholic Netflix. This free online resource includes movies, reflections and Advent programs that you can journey through right at home with your computer, laptop, tablet or phone. It is free to use when you register through our family of parishes—just go to www.formed.org and pick to register as a parishioner. Then start typing CHATHAM to select our family.

“MAKING TIME” ONLINE TED RETREAT

TRANSFORMATION EVANGELIZATION DISCIPLESHIP

"MAKING TIME"

Earlier in the fall I hosted an online and in-person edition of my TED retreats. We had over 100 people participate. The focus was on the most precious commodity any of us have—TIME. Do we make time for what is most important or do we waste our time on distractions? Do we make time for God? The one thing we cannot do is make more time but use our time wisely for those people and things we value the most. This retreat helps us discern who and what those are.

You can go to www.revjj.ca and click on the TED RETREAT icon and spend some time during the Christmas holidays drawing closer to Christ and prepare for 2023!! I guarantee that this is time well spent!!

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

Next weekend we celebrate the gift of Christmas. We celebrate the great love of our Heavenly Father who offers us the Word made flesh—to show us the pathway of holiness, faithfulness and discipleship so that we can transform the world!! May we take time to reflect and discern where God is calling us to share who we are and what we have with those in most need.

We have a number of celebrations both for Christmas Eve/Christmas Day in addition to New Year's Eve and New Year's Day. Please join us in person or online (www.chathamcatholic.tv) as we rejoice in the gift of Jesus. Please invite others to join you this Christmas. We all know that personal invitations are the most effective ways in which we bring people to our faith community.

Bishop Fabbro's 2022 Christmas Message

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We have much to be thankful for this year. As we look back on the last two Christmas seasons when we had to close our churches and opened them but only with very limited capacity, we appreciate even more the gift of being able to gather in our churches and celebrate our faith together.

There is reason for joy and hope this year as we gather to celebrate Jesus' birth. He was born of the Virgin Mary, dwelt among us and gave himself for us that he might redeem us from our sins and "purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds" (Titus 2:14). Having encountered Jesus ourselves and experienced the joy he gives us, we strive to be a joyful people "zealous for good deeds". We walk in solidarity with our sisters and brothers, with those who are poor and disadvantaged and with Indigenous people on the path of healing and reconciliation.

We are thankful for Pope Francis' visit to Canada at the end of July. He came on a penitential pilgrimage to apologize to Indigenous people and help heal the intergenerational wounds suffered because of the residential schools.

We are thankful for the many listening sessions which occurred in our diocese, and which were included in the worldwide consultation for the upcoming Synod of Bishops. The pope's desire is that we become a synodal Church and that these conversations be an ongoing part of our journey, listening to one another, praying for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and discerning how God is calling us to move forward together.

We completed the activation of our Families of Parishes, all 31 of them. It was an enormous project that extended over several years and required vision, hard work and many sacrifices of our priests, pastoral teams, administrative staff, and parishioners. I am deeply grateful to all of you. This new model will give greater stability to our parishes as we seek to serve our people in the years ahead. Becoming a missionary Church that forms disciples of Jesus is a long-term commitment. Nevertheless, it has been encouraging to see the progress we are already making.

"I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord" (Luke 2:10-11). This proclamation of the angel to shepherds is the Christmas message. Our God has come to save us. His love forms us to be disciples of Jesus who go out proclaiming to the world this good news of great joy.

Bishop Dabrowski and I will be united with you especially as we celebrate the Eucharist at Christmas. We wish for you and your families the joy of the Gospel. May we know in our hearts that Jesus came to be love for us, so that we can be love for others.

Yours Sincerely in Christ,

+ Ronald Fabbro, CSB
