IGNITE THE MISSION CHANGE IS HERE-PART I

By: Fr. John Jasica

BISHOP FABBRO'S LETTER IS HERE

This weekend we are publishing Bishop Fabbro's long awaited pastoral letter that may help us move from "maintenance to mission" at the Chatham Catholic Family of Parishes.

This letter is the result of many events, meetings and consultations both in the family of parishes and at senior levels of the diocese.

Bishop Fabbro has given us direction for the journey ahead based on the following:

1. Bishop Fabbro's pastoral visit to Chatham in June 2023 where he met with family staff, Pastoral Council and Finance Committee.
2. Reviewing documents and articles shared with the people of Chatham over the last many months.
3. Multiple conversations with me as the pastor along with consultations with senior diocesan leaders.
4. Follow up questions presented by the Pastoral Council, Finance Committee and staff over the last couple of months.

In order to appreciate this pastoral letter, I suggest you read or re-read the following major documents and articles that have been produced over the last several months so that things can be put into context. You can find copies of the first two documents at each of our churches or at www.chathamcatholic.ca:

- Ignite the Mission - Apostles for a New Era
- Feedback Forms General Summary Report
- Ignite the Mission Article #1 (online only)
- The Game Plan Message Series (new pastoral plan)

(You can find all IGNITE THE MISSION related documentation at www.chathamcatholic.ca/ignite-the-mission)

WHAT DOES BISHOP FABBRO'S LETTER TELL US?

(1) ACKNOWLEDGING THE CHALLENGES

There is no question that there have been various challenges and struggles through clustering and parish re-organization for all the parishes in Chatham over the last many years. The confusing processes and fear of church closures have caused serious and long lasting difficulties. In the third paragraph of the letter, Bishop Fabbro acknowledges and apologizes for these problems which we must now deal with today.

The good news is that he expresses a commitment to supporting us along this new path walking with us each step of the way.

(2) "IGNITE THE MISSION" - A CHANGE OF HEART

Bishop Fabbro endorses, supports and appreciates the hard work we all have done seeking to "ignite the mission" of the Good News in the city of Chatham.

Our pastoral plan, on-going consultation and focus on forming disciples who reach out to all is the way for us to transition from maintenance (trying to hang on to what we have) to mission (following the call of Christ).

The bishop appreciates the new pastoral plan that is clearly articulated and planned over the next several years, focusing on forming the faithful as missionaries who bring the Gospel to everyone in need. This will require us to all work together, to sacrifice and to serve. We are on the right path.

(3) ST. JOSEPH CHURCH AND SPIRIT & LIFE CENTRE

Bishop Fabbro has decided that St. Joseph Church will not close (this does not mean forever—we must show financial viability for the church) due to its historical and architectural significance in addition to the fact that it is the largest church in the family, centrally located in the city, and along with the Spirit & Life Centre, will offer a very unique opportunity to provide pastoral outreach to all the people of Chatham.

This decision by the bishop is rooted in the great potential for mission that could be "one of a kind" in the diocese and the greater community. With this decision, we are asked to think far beyond our own churches for the sake of future generations. This means that we will be actively consulting/planning for the renovation of the Spirit & Life Centre to centralize our parish offices and create space for different ministries, programs and outreach—seeking to build relationships with social services and organizations that serve those in need.

(4) WHAT ABOUT THE OTHER CHURCHES?

Church closures are necessary for our family of parishes. We have declining attendance, declining finances, insufficient staff/programs/ministries and aging buildings. These closures can only take place when necessary and when they comply with diocesan policies and Canon Law (Church law). The reasons for closure include lack of attendance, activities, programs, reception of the sacraments, finances and building conditions.

The journey ahead for us will be very challenging, frustrating and painful for many. Yet I also know that through our sacrifices for the sake of the mission given to us by Christ will bear fruit in due season.

To the Faithful in the Chatham Catholic Family of Parishes

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Following my pastoral visit to your Family of Parishes in June, I wish to say what a joy it was to be with you. I was pleased to meet so many of you at the celebrations of the Eucharist and in my meetings with your pastoral team and staff, and with the Parish Pastoral and Finance councils of the Family.

I congratulate you on your commitment to the mission that Jesus has entrusted to us -- the mission of evangelization, of witnessing to the joy of the Gospel in our families, our communities, and the world. Father John Jasica and the pastoral team have led you through an excellent process which has resulted in the formulation of a pastoral plan called "Ignite the Mission". It captures the essence of what it is to be mission-oriented, and to make many disciples of Jesus in your various communities. Through the unfolding of Ignite the Mission, all of you will be invited to deepen your awareness of your role in the mission of the Church.

As you commit to this missionary thrust and look to the future of your Family of Parishes, it will be important to take stock of your resources, spiritual, human and financial. This will mean the development of your Spirit and Life Centre as one locus for the unfolding of your pastoral plan. When I met with your pastoral team and staff on my pastoral visit, they told me that you are considering all of the church buildings and where you may need to close one or more. I acknowledge that the process of clustering and closing parishes undertaken 15 years ago was not done carefully in all instances. Most realize that the Chatham parishes fall into that category. I am sorry that your Family of Parishes is now dealing with a problem that should have been taken care of by others long ago. During my visit with you, I pointed out that the Diocese now has a policy which spells out the process that must be undertaken if any Family of Parishes anticipates the closure of a parish or a church.

In particular, I was asked about St. Joseph's Church. I need to inform you from the start of my decision that St. Joseph's Church will not be considered as one that could be closed in this process. There are several historic churches in the Diocese like St. Joseph, and these we need to maintain for their intrinsic architectural value, their places in the broader communities in which they are situated, and the part these churches have played in the history of the Diocese. A policy regarding historical churches in the Diocese is being developed by Senior Leadership and will be published in due time. Changes will necessarily be made to the current policy for closure of parishes or churches that I referred to above.

This decision will cause concern for some members of your Family, but one I ask you to think about in the broader picture of your mission. I envision St. Joseph's Church and the Spirit and Life Centre together as a major hub for the City of Chatham and the Family of Parishes.

This mission-oriented work and the long-term vision for evangelization, for the sake of your grandchildren and great-grandchildren and other future generations, is exciting and calls for sacrifices on the part of the members of all parishes in the Family. I am confident in the leadership of Father Jasica and his whole team to be able to make this a reality in your midst and as part of the larger community of the Diocese of London.

I assure you of my prayers and best wishes. May the Holy Spirit set your hearts on fire with his love and "ignite the mission" which Jesus has entrusted to us of proclaiming the Gospel to the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Ronald P. Fabbro, CSB
