19TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: At an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.

Both the creed we profess and today's Gospel leave no doubt: When we die, we will have to account for every moment of our lives. What did we do with the gifts we were given? What did we fail to do? Will our lives reflect what Saint John Paul II called the civilization of love or the culture of death?

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The first reading recalls the faith and courage of the people on the night of the Passover. The author of Hebrews writes, faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. In the Gospel, Jesus encourages the disciples to remain vigilant and be prepared for the return of the Son of Man.

HOME BLESSINGS

Father Ed is offering an opportunity for our parish families to meet with him, and one member from our parish ministries, in your homes while providing him the opportunity to know each one of you more on a personal basis. During this short visit Father Ed will also bless your home and your family. Please call Marsha Walters at 504-491-2723 or email her at marsha.walters41@gmail.com to schedule a home visit and blessing. We are encouraging our families to take advantage of this special opportunity to visit Father in your home, and to have your family and your home blessed.

Thank you!

Lord God, your Spirit of wisdom fills the earth and teaches us your ways. Look upon these students. Let them enjoy their learning and take delight in new discoveries. Help them to persevere in their studies and give them the desire to learn all things well. Look upon these teachers. Let them strive to share their knowledge with gentle patience and endeavor always to bring the truth to eager minds. Grant that students and teachers alike may follow Jesus Christ, the way, the truth, and the life, forever and ever. Amen

Some tips for parents for the beginning of school

Pray with your kids before they go to school daily. Praying with your kids before they leave, or on the way to school is a terrific way to pass on your Catholic faith. If you're just starting out, simply ask God to watch over your children, to help them to learn, and to bless the staff at the school. You can wrap it up with a single Hail Mary. Over time, the ritual will become a habit and your kids will likely want to take turns leading the prayer.

Share "Highs and Lows" at the dinner table. Getting my son to share details about his school day used to be difficult. When I asked him how his day was, I used to get vague responses like "fine" or "good". Then I started asking him what his highs (favorite parts) and lows (hardest parts) of the day were. Now the responses are much more detailed and I have an easier time connecting with him.

Write "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." on a post-it note. Stick it on your bathroom mirror and read it every morning. It's a simple way to start your day by listening to the voice of the Savior.

TO ALL STUDENTS AND EDUCATORS-HAVE A GREAT SCHOOL YEAR!
