St. Vincent de Paul Ministry

Last week was busy. We helped three neighborhood families with rent and utilities totaling $800.00. We also helped one family find a tent that was donated to us. We also referred for three families from outside our parish boundaries to supporting agencies. Thank you for your prayers and continued financial support allowing us to provide this assistance.

Next Sunday's Second Collection supports the Catholic Communication Campaign. The Catholic Communication Campaign connects people to Christ and builds Catholic communities in the United States and around the world using the internet, television, radio, and print media. Half the funds collected remain here in the Diocese of Sacramento to support local efforts. Be a part of this campaign to spread the Gospel message.

Parish News

When leaving the church after mass, please leave the kneelers down so that we know where to clean.

Take the parish bulletin, WATER BOTTLES, or anything you brought into the church out with you as you leave.

Only the parish bulletins should be on the vestibule table. Please do not bring in prayer cards, magazines or any other literature.

Thank you for your understanding.

Mass Celebration Guide

Sixth Sunday of Easter - May 9, 2021

Gathering Song: We Are Many Parts

Refrain:

We are many parts
We are all one body.
And the gifts we have,
We were given to share.
May the spirit of love, make us one indeed;
One, the Love that we share;
One, our hope and despair;
One, the cross that we bear.

God of all, we look to you,
We would be your servants true,
Let us be your love for all the world.
Refrain:

Offering of Gifts: Spirit and Grace

Spirit and grace, here in this meal;
You are the wind that breathes through the field.
Gather the wheat and form us in Christ.
Come be our source and breath of life.

Refrain:

In the bread, blessed, broken and shared, Christ is our life, whose presence we bear. Come, O Spirit, make your grace revealed in this holy meal.

Spirit and grace, here in this meal;
You are the life that flows through the vine. Gather this drink and form us in Christ, Come, be our source and blood of life.

Refrain:

Communion Song: Taste and See

Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord. O taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord, of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times. Praise shall always be on my lips; my soul shall glory in the Lord for God has been so good to me.

2. Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us all praise God's name, I called the Lord who answered me; from all my troubles I was set free.

3. Worship the Lord, all you people, You'll want for nothing if you ask. Taste and see that the Lord is good; in God we need put all our trust.

Closing Song

In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light, my strength, my song
This cornerstone, this solid ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease
My comforter, my all in all
Here, in the love of Christ, I stand.

In Christ alone, who took on flesh
Fullness of God in helpless babe
This gift of love and righteousness
Scorned by the ones he came to save
'Til on that cross, as Jesus died
The wrath of God was satisfied
For every sin, on him, was laid
Here, in the death of Christ, I live

Act of Spiritual Communion:

O my Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar.
I love you above all things and desire to receive you in the Eucharist. Since I cannot receive you sacramentally at this time, I beg you, dear Lord, come into my heart spiritually and refresh my soul.
I adore you with profound reverence;
I embrace you and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.

A Special Thanks to Daniel Walsh and David Byrnes who continue to Livestream the 10:30am and 12:30pm Sunday Masses.

Thanks to everyone who take the temperatures and sign people in before the masses. Also, to everyone who help clean and sanitize the church after all our masses.

Reflection:

What Would Peter Do?

Today's first reading reminds me of a high school religion student I once had in class. He said he was not religious, but he enjoyed being around people who were and described himself as spiritual but not religious.

Cornelius was a Roman Centurion, occupying Palestine. He was probably brutal and used his 100 men to maintain order, collect taxes, and crucify Jews. But there was another side to Cornelius. He had a spiritual nature and filled his household with so-called God-fearing people who were attracted to God and Jewish moral beliefs but never formally became Jewish. This was probably because of the religion's diet restrictions and circumcision laws. God sought Cornelius and told him to summon Peter to his household. The centurion obeyed. So did Peter. As a result, he converted the entire household to Christianity. How did Peter do it?

First, he went to the home of Cornelius. He didn't ask the centurion to come to him. Meeting people where they are is a good start. Second, Peter proclaimed the gospel. Third, he recognized the fact that the grace of God, the Holy Spirit, was already upon these people. All he did was affirm their state of grace through baptism.

Reliable polling shows that 23% of American adults identify as Catholic. The same percentage claim no religious affiliation at all. But that does not mean that they are not seeking God. Maybe we should follow Peter's example; reach out to them, proclaim the gospel, and recognize that the Spirit of God may already be upon many of them. The polls also say that Catholics are diminishing while the unaffiliated are increasing. Is it time to knock on doors?
