Mass Celebration Guide

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 4, 2021

Parish News

Update of COVID Precautions from Bishop Jaime Soto:

Bishop Soto is rescinding the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. As of Sunday, June 20, 2021 all the Catholic faithful in the Diocese of Sacramento are obliged to personally attend and actively participate in the Sunday celebration of the Sacrifice of the Mass (Canon 1247). Our church is currently open 100% of the seating capacity.

1. PLEASE BE ON TIME!! For Security Reasons: You will need to be on time - all doors must remain closed after mass has started. This applies to Adoration and other activities in the church.

2. Face Masks are still required

3. Refrain from hand shaking and other physical contact with others outside of one's household

3. Priest, deacons, and Extraordinary ministers should continue to use face masks for the distribution of communion; Have sanitizer available for use when needed.

4. The two front doors will be open before mass. The outside door on the chapel side will remain closed and used for exiting only. Ushers/Greeters will need to monitor mask wearing as people enter the church.

5. We will continue to Live Stream the Sacrifice of the Mass for those who are unable to attend as we monitor the number of people who are using this service.

Sunday Liturgy Aid:

Gathering Song: Your Grace is Enough

1. Great is Your faithfulness, oh God
You wrestle with the sinner's heart
You lead us by still waters and to mercy;
And nothing can keep us apart
So remember Your people,
Remember Your children
Remember Your promise, oh God

Refrain:

Your grace is enough! Your grace is enough!
Your grace is enough for me
2. Great is Your love and justice, God
You use the weak to lead the strong

You lead us in the song of Your salvation and all Your people sing along.
So remember Your people
Remember Your children
Remember Your promise, oh God

Responsorial Psalm:
Our eyes are fixed on the Lord,
pleading for his mercy.

Presentation of Gifts: All That is Hidden

1. If you would follow me,
follow where life will lead: Do not look for me among the dead, for I am hidden in pain, risen in love;
There is no harvest without sowing of grain.

All that is hidden will be made clear.
All that is dark now will be revealed.
What you have heard in the dark proclaim in the light;
What you hear in whispers proclaim from the housetops.

Communion Processional: Here I Am, Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky
I have heard my people cry
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save.
I who made the stars of night
I will make their darkness bright
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Refrain:

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night
I will go, Lord If You lead me
I will hold your people in my heart

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have born my peoples pain.
I have wept for love of them; they turn away. I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send?

I, the Lord of wind and flame
I will tend the poor and lame
I will set a feast for them; my hand will save. Finest bread I will provide 'Til their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

Closing/Sending Forth This is my Song

1. This is my song, O God of all the nations. A song of peace for lands afar and mine. This is my home, the country where my heart is. Here are my hopes and dreams, my holy shrine. But other hearts in other lands are beating With hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.

2. My country's skies are bluer than the ocean and sunlight beams on clover leaf and pine; but other lands have sunlight, too, and clover and skies are everywhere as blue as mine. O hear my song, thou God of all the nations. A song of peace for their land and for mine.

Reflection: Miraculous Remedies

Today, Mark presents us with a rare example of Jesus failing to perform miracles. The problem was people's lack of faith. His miracles required humility and an openness to trust. How can we be more open to Faith? Saint Paul tells us that God extends grace to all of us and that this grace is sufficient. As Catholics, we experience the grace of God in our prayer life, through our good works, and especially through the sacraments.

The Eucharist is central. Our Catechism calls the Mass the sacrament of the sacraments. There we receive the body and blood of Christ himself. It is not just symbolic. In his encyclical, Evangelii Gaudium, Pope Francis said that communion is "... not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and for the nourishment for the weak." But in order to receive this Eucharistic medicine, we have to first receive some medicinal medicine.

We are slowly getting back to our normal worship life and it's wonderful to be back in the pews! As more people get vaccinated more of us will feel safe and comfortable with Mass in person. The problem we face is that less than 50% of county residents are fully vaccinated despite the ready availability of the vaccine. Some of us are hesitant because of fear, previous unpleasant experiences, or a medical conditions. But some of us have fallen victim to the misinformation and disinformation that is out there. Some of us may just be procrastinating. We need to encourage others to trust the thousands of people who are working on the vaccine and the vaccination programs. Getting through this pandemic will be miraculous and, as today's gospel tells us, miracles require our faith and trust.
