

A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him.

We at St. Rita Parish have been blessed in very many ways, and once again, we are paying it forward by providing Christmas Lunch to the +120 residents and staff of Covenant House New Orleans (www.covenanthouseno.org). The resident teens are homeless, many have been physically and/or sexually abused, trafficked, aged out of foster care, or simply thrown out of their homes. Covenant House is working with these children to re-build their lives and their futures. Won't you share your family's blessings by preparing a dish or perhaps volunteering to serve on Christmas morning? For details, please contact Maria Blanchard (504-813-1930), Ronalee Holmberg (504-606-8225), or Pat Geier (504-458-7599).

Parish Support

It is the policy of the Archdiocese of New Orleans that for a student to be eligible for the "in Parish" tuition rate for St. Rita School, the household must contribute at least $350 yearly toward the support of St. Rita Parish. An active supporting parishioner is one who is registered, and contributes to the support of St. Rita Parish. Anyone wishing to enroll a child in St. Rita School, but is not an active parishioner contributing at least $350 per year to our parish, will have both an Out-of-Parish Tuition rate and a Building Fee assessed per student. To be considered a contributor, this $350 must be received before December 29th, 2017.

Bricks for the Unborn applications are in the Church pews. Instructions are on the application. Please make checks payable to Knights of Columbus.
