Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The Gospel today announces that the kingdom and salvation are for all people. It is our persistent calling out to Jesus and our faith that count, for Jesus always responds.

With love for your neighbors who have nothing, look around your house to see what furniture, household items, and clothing you no longer use...and give it to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

A Prayer to Avert Storms and Hurricanes

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command.
Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.
Amen.

Presence™

THE MYSTERY OF THE EUCHARIST

Week One — God is With Us

God is With Us examines God's saving presence with his people throughout salvation history, culminating in the Incarnation and his abiding real presence in the Eucharist. The question to ask is not only "What is the Eucharist?" but "Who is the Eucharist?"

This week, login to formed.org and watch Presence, Episode 1.

FORMED®

Dear St. Rita family,

The bishops of the United States have been promoting a National Eucharistic Revival since last summer. We have all heard the statistics about how few Catholics actually believe what the Church teaches about the Eucharist, usually because they were never actually clearly taught by their teachers that the Blessed Sacrament is not a mere symbol but is actually the Real Presence of Jesus: Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity! The church calls the Eucharist "the source and summit of the Christian life." Our life as Christians is meant to revolve around the Eucharist! Now, to be fair, the Archdiocese of New Orleans had a "Year of the Eucharist" not very long ago, in an attempt to respond to how the pandemic disrupted so many people's commitment to attending Mass. So that might be why you haven't heard much about the National Eucharistic Revival. Well, now you have! And to help us all focus on the great gift that we have in the Eucharist, Fr. Steve and I would like to highlight for you a few videos on Formed.org, which is available to you for free by going to formed.org/signup and creating a free account (which barely takes 2 minutes to do). THEN, once you have the account, you can search for Presence or go to watch.formed.org/presence, OR scan this handy QR code with your phone's camera and watch the videos on your phone (after you sign in)! This week, let's all watch Episode 1 in our homes as a parish, and let our devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist be renewed!

God bless y'all!
Fr. David

SAINT PIUS X (1835-1914) August 21

Presidential vetoes we understand. But imagine vetoing a papal election! Yet in the conclave of 1903, the Archbishop of Cracow (ironically, a predecessor in that office of Karol Wojtyla, the future John Paul II) vetoed the leading candidate on the order of the Austro-Hungarian emperor. Instead, the cardinals elected Giuseppe Sarto of Venice as Pius X, the first pope, after a succession of nobles and diplomats, to hail from humble origins. Nor did the papacy alter his endearing simplicity. Tailors eventually made his cassock cuffs detachable because he absentmindedly wiped his fountain pen on them, forgetting that his old black cassock had been replaced by papal white! Taking as his motto "To restore all things in Christ" (Ephesians 1:10), Pius condemned the theological innovations called "modernism," yet dramatically altered the then-common practice whereby people rarely received Communion for fear of unworthiness, mandating early First Communion and urging everyone to frequent reception. Refusing to bless troops assembled in Saint Peter's Square—"I bless peace, not war!"—he died brokenhearted as World War I engulfed "Christian" Europe despite his peacemaking efforts.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time A Clever Woman of Faith

Why is Jesus being so difficult with the Canaanite woman? At first he seems to be putting her off. He does this not to discourage her, but to draw a response of faith. He wants to see how persistent she is in her request.

We can tell ourselves that we are people of faith, but how easily are we discouraged? Do we think God has forgotten us when we experience trouble? The woman's clever reply to Jesus reminds us that she trusted in Jesus' power and willingness to help. She refused to give up and stop asking.

Jesus was also teaching his disciples that faith is more important than nationality. Long after Jesus' resurrection, the church struggled with the question of non-Jewish believers. Today, we may be doing the same thing in reverse. Some people think that only Catholics can be saved and that there is no hope for Protestants, much less for Jews. But though some rejected Jesus, God never rejected the Jews.

Finally, Jesus responded to her persistence. He shows us that we can keep praying till we get an answer to our prayer. The more time we spend in prayer, the more likely we are to listen to God's answer. Prayer can help us come to the peaceful acceptance that God only does what is best for us.
