Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The good news of this Gospel is that all we need to do is let God tend us and bring us to produce good fruit. All we need do is be faithful; God will take care of the rest.

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned.

A Prayer to Avert Storms and Hurricanes

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command.
Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.
Amen.

FORMED

Dear St. Rita family,

Do you know anyone who has hiked the Appalachian Trail? The whole thing takes between five and seven months and costs each hiker around $1,000 a month (probably more now, considering the price of groceries nowadays). A five to seven month mountain hike is no joke. And it matters what kind of food you're taking with you as you hike. Is it going to sustain you in the wilderness? You wouldn't attempt this hike with a backpack full of lettuce! Y'ALL: AS CATHOLICS, IN TODAY'S WORLD WE WILL NOT PERSEVERE IN LIVING OUR FAITH WITHOUT THE EUCHARIST EVERY SUNDAY AND HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION! We just won't. Our spiritual journey will come to a halt, leaving us stranded in the mountains.

But because spiritual starvation doesn't cause our bodies to die yet, when we're not receiving communion, we find ways to ignore the fact that we are completely spiritually depleted and have no strength to follow Jesus, especially when it's a hard trek. We have no food for the journey, so we barely even get started, and then we tell ourselves it's not for us, it's just for other holy church people. "I'm spiritual, not religious. It's not really my thing." News flash: it is for you, and if there is some reason you can't receive communion, I beg you: call me or Fr. Steve and let's meet to discuss it, so we can work out how you can start receiving this indispensable food for the journey. Otherwise, just go to confession and then start going back to communion! Eternal life is at stake here! We exhaust ourselves for hours every week to collect a paycheck, and yet that's a total waste if we don't give that Sunday hour to worship and receive the Bread of Eternal Life! To lose that eternal life makes nothing else in life worth it. We claim to look forward to being with God and our loved ones in eternal life; are we willing to throw that (and them) away, just because we are discouraged about going to Sunday Mass every week?

This month's video starts a little differently, with a very moving personal story. Even if you haven't had time to watch any of the previous videos, at least watch the opening five minutes of Episode 3 of Presence, titled "Bread for the Journey." You don't have to catch up on the other videos if you don't have time. The videos are at Formed.org, which is available to you for free by FIRST going to formed.org/signup and creating a free account (which barely takes 2 minutes to do). Then search for "Presence" or go to watch.formed.org/presence, OR scan this handy QR code with your phone's camera and watch the videos on your phone (after you sign in). This month, let's all watch Episode 3, and let our devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist be renewed!

God bless y'all!
Fr. David

Holy Money: Financial Virtue in a Selfish World

with Colby Brunet

Does financial planning seem overwhelming? Something you know you should get around to, but need help figuring out the next step? Or maybe it's hard to see the value in it, when it's hard enough to take care of the needs of today and this month, let alone the future. Join us for short talks and free advice by financial planner and St. Rita parishioner Colby Brunet about the practical details of various topics related to financial planning and how to approach finances with a Catholic mindset. There will be plenty of time for Q&A, so bring your questions!

WOULD YOU LIKE A PIECE OF ST. RITA HISTORY IN YOUR HOME OR OFFICE?

As mentioned in the pulpit announcements at Mass, our new pews are now being manufactured and should arrive in February. To make room, we will sell off most of our existing pews, which are the original pews of St Rita when the church was built in 1962. (Some we will auction off at Fall Fest and some we'll use here on campus) You can own a piece of history and bring one of these pews to enhance your patio or make a 'house chapel' of sorts where you can pray in the same seats where you sit for Mass!!!! There are a limited number of pews, so we will reserve them on a first come, first serve, basis beginning Oct 18. If you call before that, we will ask you to call back on Oct 18 so please wait until then to call the parish office at 504-737-2915. You will need to arrange to have the pew picked up and brought to your home sometime in January (we will announce the dates for removal when we get a more clear understanding about the completion of the new ones) The small pews near the walls are 7 feet wide and we are asking $275.

The larger pews are 17 feet wide and need to be taken apart in the middle. You will probably need to get someone to create another endpiece so you can make it into two separate pews 8-1/2 feet wide ea. For those we are asking $350.
