OUR LADY HELP OF CHRISTIANS

May 24

In 1815 Pope Pius VII instituted a feast day on May 24 honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary under this title after he returned to Rome from several years of captivity imposed by the emperor Napoleon Bonaparte.

Reflection of An Adorer

3/21/23

My dear daughter, I love you very much . As you pray the divine mercy chaplet , place yourselves in my divine love. Place your hearts, my dear children near my Sacred Heart. Let the blood and water that flows out over you wash you clean and then immerse yourselves in my Divine Mercy! Look into your souls, and fill them with my radiant light that pours forth from my Sacred Heart. My dear children I love you. My dear children, I thirst for your love. Give to me your prayers, fasting and penance filling up the hole in my heart for the many who do not even take time to know their Lord. Spend time with me, let the fire of my love for you, ignite your souls, so that you can bring light into the world , dispelling the darkness that invades you. Be one with me in love and mercy!
Go in peace !

Pray for Them

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA (1381-1457)

May 22

If you're ever in Philadelphia on May 22, forget parking anywhere near Saint Rita's shrine. Cars line streets and fill medians as throngs pack a candlelight vigil and six Masses, honoring this patroness of lost causes, hopeless situations, and—as her statue in countless churches built by twentieth-century immigrants testifies—difficult marriages, troubled homes, and alienated children. Wise people warn, be careful what you pray for. “Divine Savior,” Rita prayed, “let me suffer like you!” Obedient to parents who refused her wish to become a nun, Rita married a man who returned her devotion with twenty years of abuse. When enemies murdered him, Rita's two sons swore revenge. Paintings depict her pointing the angry boys toward Christ crucified, whom she begged to restrain them. Within the year, both sons died. Alone now, Rita went to the convent but was refused. The nuns feared violence, since one of them was related to the murderer. Rita arranged peace between the families, made vows, and became much sought after as a counselor and intercessor for forty years on earth—and ever since in heaven.

Pentecost Sunday Caution: Spirit at Work

If Pentecost celebrates the gifts of the Spirit, it can tempt us to separate the Spirit from the Father and Jesus. Sometimes we think of the Father as the God of the Old Testament, Jesus as center of New Testament, and the Spirit as God of the present age, almost as if the Father and Jesus were enjoying their retirement. Actually, all three persons share one God-life. Instead of three gods debating the fate of the universe, we have one God who is over all and in all.

The Spirit has been active in all ages. The prophets were empowered by the Spirit to proclaim God's word to Israel. Jesus was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit led Jesus into the desert at the beginning of his ministry. (Search the word “spirit” in the four gospels and it appears 75 times.) Jesus was filled with the Spirit as he preached and worked miracles. Then at Pentecost the disciples were filled with the Spirit.

So what about Pentecost? It is really about using our gifts and sharing the good news. The Spirit gives us the power, courage, and energy to do this. The Spirit's gifts are meant to be shared. The prophets could not help proclaim God's message. Jesus shared all he knew with his disciples. The disciples went out to the world to spread the news of Jesus' death and resurrection. So we, too, are given gifts to be shared.

The greatest gift we have been given is the news of our salvation. This feast reminds us to share that with others. We may do that by example, as when we worship together, forgive others, give to the poor or help someone in need. We can also share that news by teaching our children about God and his love for them, teaching them to pray, or sharing our faith with other adults. As we come to realize how much God has done for us and how close he is to us, we will want to share that with others. Obviously, we can't make everyone believe in Jesus. But how sad would it be if someone we know was looking for the truth and we neglected to offer it?

The Power of Pentecost

Today's first reading recounts the great event of Pentecost. Pentecost is often called the birthday of the Church. What does that mean?

Before he ascended into heaven, Jesus said to his apostles: "stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high" (Lk 24:49).

Christ made it clear that without the Holy Spirit, his apostles could not do the work he did. They could not grow in virtue. They could not accomplish the mission he gave them. It was only after Pentecost that the Church was able to live, thrive, and grow. Even though they had just spent three years with Jesus, the leaders of the Church that Christ had established couldn't do anything without the indwelling of the Spirit.

Two thousand years later, we need the Holy Spirit more than ever! St. Pope John Paul II constantly stressed openness to the Spirit of God, "We must rekindle in ourselves the impetus of the beginnings and allow ourselves to be filled with the ardor of the apostolic preaching which followed Pentecost."

Through baptism, the third person of the Holy Trinity makes our bodies his temple, a gift that is "confirmed" in the sacrament of confirmation. This is how Christ gives us the power to know Him and the Father, and to do what He calls us to do.

But the Holy Spirit, even as He lives inside of us as baptized Christians, is only as active as we allow. We must implore Him daily to help us. Having free will, we can choose to fan into flame the gift of the Holy Spirit and truly be transformed and empowered, or we can quench the flame and even allow it to be extinguished in us.

St. Pope John Paul II also said, "Whenever the Spirit intervenes, He leaves people astonished. He brings about events of amazing newness; He radically changes persons and history." This is the power of Pentecost. All we need to do to experience this kind of transformation is to say, like Mary did, "Be it done unto me."

Breathe into me, Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy. Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy. Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy. (St. Augustine)

By Christine Hanus

Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the love of God to the poor by assisting families, providing in food, for utility and rent bills, etc. Thank You!
