

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd,
his heart was moved with pity for them,
for they were like sheep without a shepherd;
and he began to teach them many things.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's love overflowed into practical love for the poor.

Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, as you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box.

Silver Trotters

The monthly meeting of the Silver Trotters is July 25th at 7:00pm in the St. Rita gym. Doors open at 6:00pm. Our guest this month is Bryan Wallace from Harahan City Hall to update us on the changes at Soniat Playground and Zeringue Park. Refreshments are available after the meeting.

Future Happening: At our August 22nd meeting we'll have our annual Bizarre Bazaar so bring your family, your neighbors and anyone who likes to shop. Maybe you'll even get some of your Christmas shopping done.

For additional information please contact Louise Chapman at (504) 737-3797.

Reflection of An Adorer

12/19/23

My dear daughter, I love you very much. My children, I am the Light of the world. You are eagerly awaiting my coming this advent, because you are seeking the light to come down upon you to illuminate your souls with love, hope, and mercy. I am that light that is coming to save my children. Capture this light and bathe in its glory! As you anticipate my coming on Christmas, know that I've been with you always, from the very beginning of time. There has never been a time that I have not thought of you as my loving children. I came and walked among you so that you would have a tangible presence of me, and to show you an example of the way you should live your life. I am the way my dear ones, I am the truth my dear ones, and I am the Light you should follow. May your hearts be gladdened and may they not be troubled, for I am with you always until the end of time! I love you very much, go in peace!

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Jesus, Our Peace

You probably know that the Jews in the first century did not particularly like the Gentiles. Some of them who became Christians still looked down on the non-Jewish Christians. In the epistle today, Paul addresses this problem by reminding them that Jesus died for all people, Jew and Gentile. And just as Jesus rose from the dead to a new life, the converts to Christianity were given a new life also. That new life of baptism joined them all to Christ, who lives in them, forgives them, and brings them peace. So why was that unity so hard to accept?

One reason is that as much as we complain about laws and regulations, many people like to live by them. We even make our own rules: “I always eat breakfast at 7:15,” or “I have to read the newspaper every morning.” Even though our rules may not be bad in themselves, if we get angry at anyone who interrupts our routine, those rules lead us to sin. But some of the Hebrew Christians thought that they still had to keep the laws and regulations of the old covenant. There is nothing wrong with keeping the Ten Commandments: They are simply examples of Jesus’ command to love God with all your being and to love your neighbor as yourself. So why not just do that?

The problem with only keeping commandments is that we can avoid doing evil things, but still not love God or my neighbor. For example, we can avoid using God’s name in vain and kick back and relax on the Sabbath, but still not really love God. We can keep from killing, robbing, or lying to our neighbor, without loving anyone. Fortunately for us, God loves us first; we need only respond to that love. And if we make the decision to love God and our neighbors, and base all our other actions on that love, we will not break any commandments, or even worry about breaking them. We will have the peace that Paul mentions in our reading, the peace that makes us all one in Christ.

Tom Schmidt

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while” must have been chosen for this summer season by a committee eager for a vacation. For the apostles, the promise of rest was foiled by the needs of the people who discovered their hideaway and pressed them into ministry. Some people do indeed use their vacation for ministry and mission, giving an intensity of service otherwise not possible. For most of us, vacation is a time when we can grow more aware of God’s plan, and can renew the bonds of love with family and friends in times of play and leisure.

The disciples learn today that there is no place so out of the way that the life of worship and ministry is disengaged. Giving yourself to summer worship will enrich you, delight you, and give you a sense of the word of God’s progress in your heart. In today’s world, summer is the time when we are most acutely aware of the beauty of the world. Gratitude and wonder are fertile soils for God’s word to take root and prosper. Welcome the visitor today, and resolve that when you travel, you will be faithful to Sunday worship.

—Rev. James Field

A Prayer to Avert Storms and Hurricanes

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command.
Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.
Amen.
