Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The Gospel tells us "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." By "listening" we are able to live the gospel. Gospel living is something so simple as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you enable the members of the Society to become a "listening heart" to the hungry, the homeless and the struggling poor.

ALMIGHTY GOD WE GIVE YOU OUR SCHOOL. WE GIVE YOU ALL THE TEACHERS AND STAFF WHO WORK HERE, WE GIVE YOU ALL THE CHILDREN WHO STUDY HERE. WE PRAY OUR SCHOOL WOULD BE PLACE OF GREAT DISCOVERY, ADVENTURE AND CREATIVITY. MAY IT BE A PLACE WHERE WE LOVE TO LEARN AND WHERE WE LEARN TO LOVE, A PLACE WHERE EVERY ONE IS RESPECTED AND ALL ARE DEEPLY VALUED. WE ASK ALL THIS THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN.

Reflection of An Adorer

4/11/34

My dear daughter, I love you very much. My precious ones, place your head upon my Sacred Heart. Listen to my heart beats and unite your heart to the same rhythm that you hear. Connect and plug into this overwhelming love and mercy that flows from Me. Contemplate on this great gift of love and let it wash over you my dear children. Ignite your souls with this unending love. Fuel your bodies with the Eucharist, which is my body and blood, a never ending act of love. Every time you partake in this forever love I give you, you will be one with Me. We will be connected in love, and you will be infused in the light of My Divine Mercy. Avail yourselves to this great gift as often as possible. This gift will bring you peace and eternal salvation. This gift of love will give you strength to stay in the light, and give light to this dark world, which is taking down so many souls. My children, you must be a light in your world. Pray, pray, pray, my dear ones, and save souls. Always know that I am here for you. I will never abandon my children. Do not lose hope, be one with Me! Go in peace, and spread the peace of God to everyone!

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Don't Look Back

It's bad enough that the Israelites were grumbling against their leaders. But they also complain to God that they were better off as slaves in Egypt. After all God did to bring them to freedom, now they want to go back to slavery. Before we judge them too harshly, we might ask ourselves if we ever act like that. For us, it might be looking back on our slavery to sin.

We would never sin if there wasn't something attractive about it. We might confess the sin and say we'll never do that again, but we often can't resist the memory of our past sins. As we hold on to the past, the temptations come back and draw us to repeat our offenses. Even though we know we are better off putting it behind us, we sometimes find it difficult to move on. Notice that the Israelites look back to their time in Egypt, while the people of Jesus' time look back to the manna in the desert, yet none of them ever had manna!

So how do we free ourselves from the past? Should we look to the future, instead? If we want to make the world, or just our community, a better place we can make plans. If those plans are ever going to work, we have to begin now. Jesus doesn't say "Remember how good that manna was." Or "Don't worry; your children will get it right." No, he keeps us focused on the present moment, telling us to believe in Him now, His Father gives us true bread today; Jesus is that bread of life.

Those words are just as true today. We may look fondly at Jesus' birth, his miracles, and his death on the cross, but if we don't let him be born again in us, if we don't trust him to do wonders today, and if we don't take up our crosses each day—we are missing the chance to experience Jesus in us and in the people we live and work with each day.

Tom Schmidt,

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

If the alb is the premier baptismal garment, then why are there so many other styles of vesture in evidence in our parishes? In some places, altar servers and other ministers might wear a garment, usually black, called a cassock. Over that is normally worn a white garment (a "surplice"), reminiscent of the alb but much shorter, often of starched linen and trimmed with lace. The cassock is not a liturgical garment, but a clerical robe. Its origins lie in the religious habit of monks. By the late Middle Ages, diocesan priests and clerics increasingly were encouraged to emulate religious priests. Very small boys were often apprenticed to monasteries, especially for music education, and would be invested with a cassock and sometimes even inducted into the ranks of clerics.

For centuries before the Reformation, it was required that all men entering higher education be clerics, and so the cassock and its variations became familiar academic garb. At the Reformation, many ministers retained a form of the cassock as ordinary dress, rejecting liturgical garments. In the seventeenth century, the English Civil War was in part provoked by the Archbishop of Canterbury's insistence that ministers wear surplices. Although the Episcopal Church now retains "cassock and surplice" as the normal dress for lay men and women assisting at liturgy, Catholics are increasingly attentive to the deeply traditional treasure of the alb, our baptismal robe, when special liturgical vesture is needed.

—Rev. James Field

A Prayer to Avert Storms and Hurricanes

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command.
Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.
Amen.
