

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?"
Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go?
You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

Jn 6:67-69

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks "Do you also want to leave?" We must ask ourselves if we really want to hear the good news of his love for us and for others. Is the word of God able to break into our consciousness, change us and call us to hear the cries of the poor?

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to hear the cries of the poor by assisting families, providing in food, or utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

Reflection of An Adorer

8/8/23

My dear daughter I love you very much. Seek the Lord, my dear children in everything you do. From the morning when you rise, and until you rest your head at night, be sure to walk with God through your day. When you see your neighbor, look to God, see the love he is sharing with you. Give it back to all you encounter. Be a radiant light that shines like the sun, so that many will be compelled to seek the same source of light you give forth. This love I have for my children should also pour forth from you. Serve one another as I have showed you the way. I have been an example of service. I have been an example of love and mercy. My children be one with Me in all that you do. My heart is open wide, place yourselves into my Sacred Heart and feel the love I am sharing with you. Go in peace and bring peace to your neighbor!

Lectio: Eucharist

Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching.

"The Lamb of God," "The Bread of Life," "The Body and the Blood of Christ"... these are phrases we know from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.
