Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The gospel today hits home closer than we may think. What traditions do we blindly cling to? Perhaps it is enough for us just to go to Mass on Sunday? Do we keep the letter of the law and miss entirely the spirit of the law. Interior righteousness means a heart turned to God. Purity of heart is expressed in righteous living: self - giving for the sake of others.

As you give your gift to the poor through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, in your heart you also will find the good news of God's love.

Pray for Them

Reflection of An Adorer

8/8/23

My dear daughter I love you very much. Seek the Lord, my dear children in everything you do. From the morning when you rise, and until you rest your head at night, be sure to walk with God through your day. When you see your neighbor, look to God, see the love he is sharing with you. Give it back to all you encounter. Be a radiant light that shines like the sun, so that many will be compelled to seek the same source of light you give forth. This love I have for my children should also pour forth from you. Serve one another as I have showed you the way. I have been an example of service. I have been an example of love and mercy. My children be one with Me in all that you do. My heart is open wide, place yourselves into my Sacred Heart and feel the love I am sharing with you. Go in peace and bring peace to your neighbor!

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectio: Eucharist

Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching.

"The Lamb of God," "The Bread of Life," "The Body and the Blood of Christ"... these are phrases we know from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.

A Prayer to Avert Storms and Hurricanes

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command.
Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us
and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.
Amen.
