Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering.

ANNOUNCING OUR 2025

Winter Clothing Drive

I think that most of us can agree that we are very fortunate to have a warm and dry place to spend the upcoming cold winter nights, and most of us can find a coat, windbreaker or sweatshirt in our closets that we haven't worn in a while. Unfortunately, there are hundreds of men, women, and children that are faced with homelessness, or other life situations that leave them without basic necessities.

Please help us beginning on September 1, and running through the end of December in our 2025 Winter Clothing Drive.

We will collect articles of clothing at our stores, and deliver them to St Vincent DePaul and other charities on a regular basis between now and year end.

Last year, we were able to deliver at least 5 pickup truck loads of clothing to multiple homeless charities in our area

Please open your heart and give...

Donations may be brought to the St. Rita of Cascia Church office during business hours, OR the St Rita Food Pantry at 375 Oak Ave in Harahan, on Thursdays between 10:00 AM & 2:00 PM.
Pick ups available – call 504.628.1992

Thanks!

Silver Trotters

The monthly meeting of the Silver Trotters is September 25, at 4pm in the Harahan Senior Center. At this meeting, we have a guest speaker, Christopher Dunaway, Assistant Extension Agent for Jefferson Parish. Also, we are having an Ice Cream Social. Hope to see you there. For any additional information please contact Louise Chapman at (504) 737-3797.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Clever Crook

The parable in today's Gospel is another one with a surprise ending. The crooked steward is commended by his master for being prudent, or clever, trying to protect himself. Jesus did not condone dishonesty. He just wanted us to be just as clever in serving the Lord. Let's look at the first two readings and how they challenge us to do more.

The reading from Amos talks about those "who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor" (Amos 8:4). The challenge here is to ask yourself, "What do I do for the poor?" If all you can think of is to throw some change in the monthly collection for the poor, you're not being very clever. Most parishes have organizations to help the needy and are happy to get volunteers. Imagine what you would do to help someone you loved who was laid off or on disability leave. Do you love Jesus enough to help the poor in his name? Do you ever think of praying for the poor? Not just a quick response to one of the Prayers of the Faithful for the homeless, but actually taking time to pray for those who are unemployed or with jobs that don't pay enough to support a family.

Speaking of prayer, our second reading also challenges us to do more. Paul recommends prayers for "kings and for all in authority" (1 Timothy 2:2). It's easy to pray for friends and family; how much time do we give to prayers for government leaders and executives? Even the leaders with whom we disagree could use more guidance from the Holy Spirit. Paul reminds us that God wants everyone to be saved (1 Timothy 2:4), sinners as well as saints, terrorists and embezzlers, atheists and agnostics. I'll bet you don't spend much time praying for the "bad guys." Yet Jesus said, "Love your enemies. Pray for those who hurt you" (Matthew 5:44). I can't say I've ever heard anyone say that was their favorite Bible passage. But if Jesus expects more from those who love him, who are we to let him down?

Tom Schmidt

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When the Roman Empire turned a favorable eye toward the once-persecuted Christians, among the effects was a population explosion in the baptismal font, as Christian sympathizers stepped from the shadows. With more and more people becoming Christians, laws were passed to protect Sunday as a work-free day. Soon, it became possible to celebrate Mass later in the morning, rather than the older custom of gathering before dawn to celebrate Eucharist. Amazingly, despite the increasing numbers of Christians, there was great resistance to adding to the number of worship events; the Eucharist that began as a few friends around a table soon was transformed into a more formal event with throngs crowding a large hall. All the Christians in a city or town would gather around the bishop for the one Sunday Eucharist, and only when the crowds became unmanageable was there an impulse to divide the assembly by splitting off a new bishop and flock.

Now, sixteen hundred years later, many parishes see a need to trim or combine Mass schedules. This is often seen as tough surgery. Yet our forebears in the faith would see it as a gain: a filling up of the Eucharist with a large and vigorous assembly, a fullness of ministry, an opportunity to make the Church more fully visible and stronger for service.

—James Field

Our 75th Anniversary celebration this past Sunday was absolutely FABULOUS!!! God gave us glorious weather, the food was plentiful and delicious, and everyone seemed to have a great and safe time. I'd like to thank Archbishop Aymond for taking the time out of his very busy schedule to celebrate this feast with us. Thanks as well to our guest Concelebrants, Fr Bob Massett, who had previously served at St Rita as a Parochial Vicar, Fr Randy Roux, who grew up here in Harahan, and De Nathan Simoneaux, who has grandchildren here at St Rita School. They are still are part of our St Rita Family. Thank you to all those who helped put this celebration and Family Day together, especially, but not limited to, our 75th Anniversary Committee, the HSA, Dad's Club, the Food Pantry, the Knights of Columbus, Legion of Mary, Silver Trotters, Altar Society, and, of course, our student lectors, gift bearers, choir, banner makers, St Rita Teachers and Administration, and Parish Staff. All pitched in to make this a great celebration. THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!!
