HOLY COMMUNION FOR THE SICK & SHUT-INS

Holy Communion will be brought to the home. Please call the church office when someone is ill and unable to come to church, or when someone is in a hospital. Prayers may be requested for the sick and elderly.

Sign up to make a recurring automatic donation by going to StRitaHarahan.com where you will find a link to our Online Giving page or make a one time donation

ADORATION CHAPEL

Our St. Joseph Perpetual Adoration Chapel is located on the first floor of the Msgr. Champagne Complex on the corner of Jefferson Hwy. and Ravan Ave. and is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. (For everyone's safety, only assigned adorers are allowed entry with a key code between the hours of 6:00 pm and 7:00 am) Prayerfully consider spending an hour a week with Our Divine Lord. If you cannot commit to a specific hour, why not consider being a substitute? If you are interested, please contact the church office at 737-2915.

SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The sacrament is administered upon request to those near death, gravely ill, permanently handicapped, very elderly and those undergoing major surgery.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

3rd Sunday of each month following the 11:30 a.m. Mass.

BAPTISM SEMINAR

Parents and Godparents are required to attend a baptism seminar held at 7:00 p.m. every month in the Mary Room at the rectory. Parents must attend the baptism seminar before their child can be baptized.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

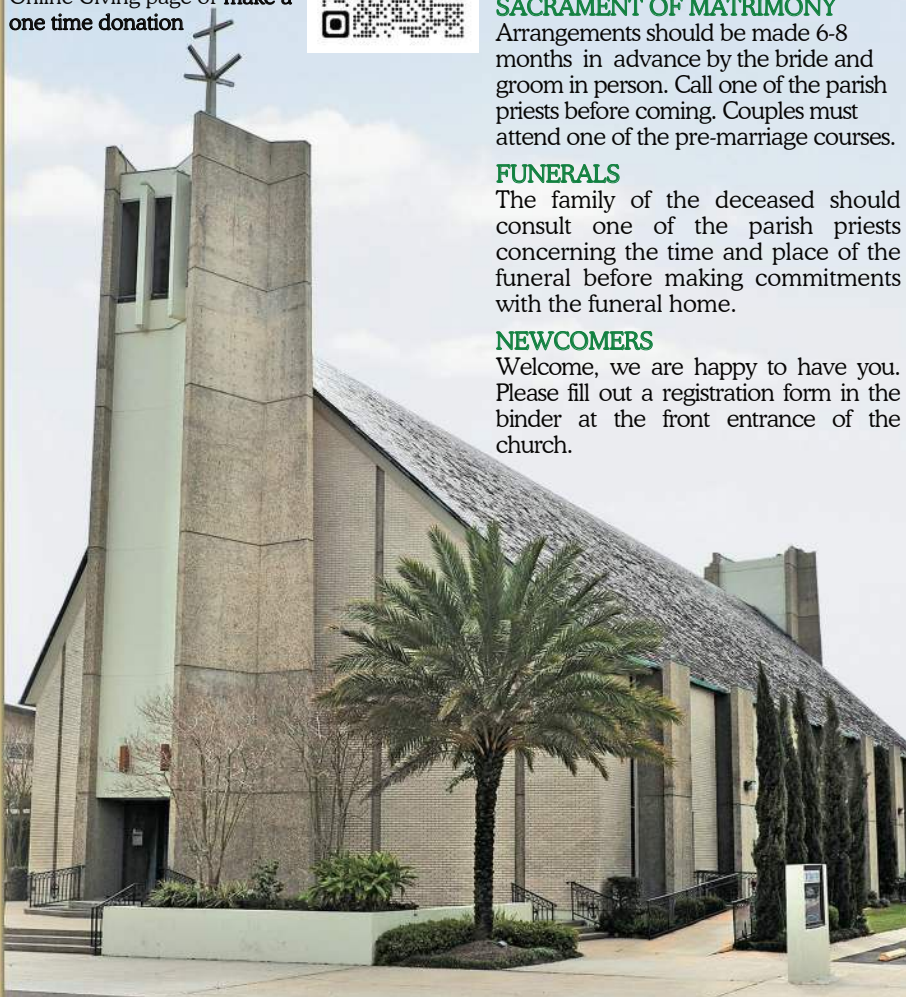

Arrangements should be made 6-8 months in advance by the bride and groom in person. Call one of the parish priests before coming. Couples must attend one of the pre-marriage courses.

FUNERALS

The family of the deceased should consult one of the parish priests concerning the time and place of the funeral before making commitments with the funeral home.

NEWCOMERS

Welcome, we are happy to have you. Please fill out a registration form in the binder at the front entrance of the church.

September 2026

To: Clergy, Religious, and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On September 14, the universal Church celebrates the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. As Catholics, the cross of Jesus becomes a sign of God's love and His triumph over evil. Through His death on the Cross and resurrection, Jesus opened the gates of heaven so that everyone once again has access to an eternal life of bliss with Him and all the saints.

For over a decade, parishes in the Archdiocese of New Orleans have opened their doors on the Wednesday closest to the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross for an Evening of Confession, an opportunity for Catholics across the archdiocese to receive God's mercy and forgiveness and the grace that comes from the Sacrament of Penance. Of course, you are free to go to your parish or to another one for the sacrament.

This year, as we live our recent consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, this beautiful practice offers us a unique opportunity to give ourselves anew to Jesus through encountering His merciful Heart in this sacrament. All churches in the Archdiocese of New Orleans will be open for the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Wednesday, September 16 from 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. or until the line for confession has come to an end. Whether we have been to confession recently, or perhaps it has been many years, our good priests will be waiting for you and the Sacred Heart of Jesus is ready for you, inviting you to know and accept anew His mercy and love. Why not invite a family member or friend to come and encounter Jesus through the sacrament too?

Know of my prayers, love and gratitude for you, and please pray for me in your kindness.

With renewed best wishes, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Archbishop of New Orleans

We All Receive More Than We Deserve

The parable of the landowner and the laborers hired to work in his vineyard is, on one level, about abundance. The landowner had a large enough vineyard that he needed to hire laborers repeatedly throughout the day to get the work done. As evening approached and the men lined up for their pay, the landowner paid all of them a denarius each. A "denarius" was a silver Roman coin used as payment for a full day's wage. The owner of the vineyard didn't need to scrimp and save. "Are you envious because I am generous?" he asked those who complained that all had been treated with equal generosity.

The landowner's actions depict the endlessly loving heart of the Father that poured itself out onto his undeserving creation with the incarnation of his Son, the Word-made-flesh, God-with us. Jesus Christ became our brother, our Savior, our Friend, the Lamb of God, our Eucharistic Lord, generosity without limits. As he one day multiplied the loaves and the fish for a crowd of 5000, Jesus abundantly multiplies the gift of his presence to us in the Eucharist all over the world until the end of history. Generous abundance is a hallmark of the Kingdom. Jesus said: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (Jn 10:10).

Against the backdrop of this image of extravagant magnanimity the parable paints the stinginess and selfish demands of the workers of the first hour. They assumed that they would get more than what had been agreed upon because the landowner was doling out a full day's wage to those who had come at the last hour and who had clearly done far less work. As these tired laborers watched I can imagine them muttering among themselves that these latecomers were absolutely unworthy to be treated the same as they. The unexpected reversal of the parable is this: no matter how much or little we work, we are all equal recipients of God's generous abundance, of the gifts of his forgiveness, holiness, mercy, salvation, eternal life.

How many times have I thought that I deserved more than the others because I had given more of my time, energy, and love than they. I have fallen into the trap that the others deserved less because of how little they worked or how selfish they had been. This parable frees us from thinking we need to win God's endless love. This love is abundant and freely given to us all according to God's own generous determination. Let us not be upset that others receive what we have been given, but rejoice that others have been gifted, included, loved, and blessed, for we all receive more than we could ever deserve.

Jesus, you surprise me by your love for me and your love for others who I sometimes feel don't deserve that love. I am amazed at how you keep me in existence through your bounteous mercies, even when my love is so small and stingy compared to yours. Take my heart, O Lord, and make it just like yours. Amen.

HOLY LAND GIFTS Sept 19-20

Recently the world saw the story unfold about the struggles of the Christians in Gaza and the Holy Land for the past few years, and unfortunately this struggle hasn't reached an end yet. The city of Bethlehem is surrounded with checkpoints, gates, and concrete barriers that limit day-to-day tasks, including going to church, school, and work. The Gaza war halted tourism to the Holy Land, all souvenir shops and hotels are now closed. This has resulted in a 70% unemployment rate among the carvers. The Catholics of the Holy Land ask for the support of your prayers and the purchase of these handcrafted artworks that can make unique sacramental gifts. Proceeds from sales generate much-needed employment opportunities and monetary funds for 600 Catholic families in Bethlehem. Holy Land Gifts will be here before and after our masses on Sept. 19-20. Cards, cash, and Apple Pay will be accepted. Please consider these gifts for your family, friends, and yourself and be as generous as God is to you.

OUR LADY OF SORROWS

September 15

Mary is venerated under this title to commemorate the seven sorrows that she suffered: The prophecy of Simeon, the flight into Egypt, the loss of the child Jesus in the temple, meeting Jesus carrying his cross, the Crucifixion, receiving the body of Jesus from the cross, and the burial of Jesus. A devotional image of her shows her heart pierced with seven swords to represent these sorrows.

We want YOU

—for the Society of—

St. Vincent DePaul

The Society of St. Vincent DePaul needs YOU. We are in great need of new members to help us answer our neighbors' growing needs.

If you've ever wondered how you can live out Christ's call to serve the least of our brothers, this is how.

It's easy to get involved with our ministry to our neighbors in need in Harahan. Just call the church office & let them know you want to help by becoming a member of our conference.

A SVDP member will follow up with you.

We meet on Tuesdays at 6 pm for about 1-1/2 hours.

As we get calls for help, we go on home visits—always in pairs.

Come find comfort and joy in knowing you are doing Christ's work!
