

Saint Aloysius Catholic Church

A Discipleship Parish

July 27, 2025 - Seventeenth Sunday Ordinary in Time

Dear brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ,

Today's Scripture readings focuses on the power of prayer and teaches us what to pray for and how to pray. When we want something we pray. There are so many things we need to pray for our parish and for our family.

The first reading, taken from the book of Genesis, gives us the model for prayer provided by Abraham in his dialogue with God. Although Abraham seems to be, persistent intercession, God is being moved to mercy by the goodness of a few innocent souls. In the Gospel passage, after teaching a model prayer, Jesus instructs his disciples to pray to God their Heavenly Father with the same boldness, daring, intimacy, conviction, persistence and perseverance Abraham and his friends prayed.

Prayer is essential for Christian family life. To remain faithful in marriage, the spouses must pray, not only individually, but together for forgiveness. Forgiveness is not easy. Forgiveness is not forgetting. It is not "forgive and forget" as if nothing wrong had ever happened, but rather, "forgive and move forward". Forgiveness does not overlook evil or injustice for that would be to deny the truth. Forgiveness does not mean approval. Forgiveness begins with knowing you have been forgiven. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned. Forgiveness recognizes that people are always bigger than their faults. If we look for the good, it is easier to forgive the bad. Forgiveness allows the other person to start over again. Forgiveness wishes the other well, and even prays for the blessing of the other person. "Love your enemies; pray for those who persecute you." Forgiveness does not change the past, but it does enlarge the future.

Through the Our Father, Jesus is giving us a new vision of human relationships, that we all, irrespective of our color, creed or social background, and ethnic upbringing, are the children of God and thereby are brothers and sisters. When we learn this lesson, if we can learn this lesson, if we are able to treat God as our Father and love Him accordingly, and if we are able to treat every other human being as our own dear brothers and sisters and love them accordingly then, only we shall experience the Kingdom of God here on earth and enjoy this in the next life. When we love each other and forgive each other's failings, God also will love us and forgive us. This is the foundation of true faith.

Thank you for your generous contribution and prayers.

Stewardship Reflection... 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9 Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Gratitude and generosity are gifts that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

Mass Intentions.. During the celebration of Mass, those wishing to honor a loved one who has passed or celebrating a special milestone may offer a "special intention". These special intentions are offered to God as prayers of intercession and thanksgiving. Intentions can be offered for anyone. They do not need to be parishioners or even catholic. A Mass stipend of $10 per intention is suggested, specific dates may not be available. To schedule a Mass Intention, please call the Parish office (217-544-4554) for more information.

Prayer for Pope Leo... XIV Lord, source of eternal life and truth, give to your shepherd, Pope Leo, a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love. By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care, may he, as successor to the Apostle Peter and vicar of Christ, build your Church into a sacrament of unity, love, and peace for all the world. Amen. Let us pray for the pope. May the Lord preserve him, give him a long life, make him blessed upon the earth, and not hand him over to the power of his enemies. May your hand be upon your holy servant. And upon your son, whom you have anointed. Our Father ..., Hail Mary ..., Glory be ...

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” Sounds lovely, doesn’t it? I remember understanding this verse as though God is like a genie in a bottle and prayer is like a delivery service. But when I encountered true hardship, this interpretation was tested. I was seeking, but I couldn’t find what I wanted. My request seemed to go unanswered. I was asking, but my hands were empty. I couldn’t reconcile this. Did this mean God wasn’t telling me the truth? Trusting that couldn’t be the case, I pressed in a little harder. In time, and through the grace of God, I realized I’d been reading this verse through selfish eyes. I was understanding this passage to say, “ask for whatever you feel like in the moment, and I’ll drop it on your doorstep.” But what does Jesus actually say? He says that if we ask, he will always give us the Holy Spirit. This understanding can change how we pray. The Lord doesn’t promise to instantly cure our maladies, or to remove every ounce of pain on this side of the veil. But he does promise to send his Advocate, the Holy Spirit, to be with us through it all. And that is far better than any type of delivery service.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today’s psalm echoes the Gospel message that the Lord never abandons us. In our response, we unite our voices with the universal Church as we say, “Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.” We encounter hardship on a daily basis. From the tiny irritations that tempt our tempers to flare to the heavy crosses we carry, we are reminded of how much we need God’s help. And yet, how often is our response to turn inward and grow weary, discouraged, or angry? Next time we come eye to eye with a challenge, let’s try to respond like the psalmist, and cry out to the Advocate. He is very near. Come Holy Spirit.

REFLECT

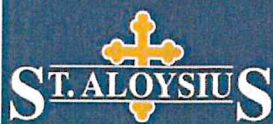

We are reminded in today’s readings that the Lord is always near, that he hears us, and that he responds generously. Thank God this is true even when it doesn’t seem like it. As we face our daily hardships, let’s not forget to ask Jesus for help. Don’t forget that he never rations the Spirit, and though he will never force himself on you, he’s waiting eagerly to pour his love into your heart. Ask! Seek! Knock! He knows your voice, and he is ready to respond.
