Our liturgies often use the word "paschal," as in "the Paschal Mystery." Paschal is the adjective form of Passover (the feast which is called Pesach in Hebrew). The original Passover remembers two historical events for the Israelites -- the angel of Death who passed over their homes and spared their children when the plagues afflicted Egypt; and the passing over (through) the Red Sea when they fled Egypt to escape their slavery. Christians then refer to the Paschal Mystery (rooted in Passover) as the passion, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus, who saves us from death, and who frees us from our slavery to sin. Our Eucharistic liturgies are founded on the original celebrations of the Passover, in which the lamb was slain; we now celebrate the suffering, death, resurrection, and ascension of the Lamb of God. Baptism joins us to that Paschal Mystery as does the Eucharist, which we celebrate most profoundly in these coming days of Holy Week. Please join us for the three most holy days of our faith-life.

INCENSE ALERT

We will be using incense during Holy Week at the following services:

- ◆ Holy Thursday at the end of Mass for the procession -- from the altar to the side entrance near the organ.
- ◆ Easter Vigil at the beginning from the fire outside through the main aisle and into the sanctuary.
- ◆ Easter Sunday at the 11 am Mass -- we suggest those who are affected by incense be seated in the side sections or in the narthex.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Jesus himself warns us that the path he proposes goes against the flow, even making us challenge society by the way we live and, as a result, becoming a nuisance. He reminds us how many people have been, and still are, persecuted simply because they struggle for justice, because they take seriously their commitment to God and to others. Unless we wish to sink into an obscure mediocrity, let us not long for an easy life, for "whoever would save his life will lose it." (Mt 16:25)

In living the Gospel, we cannot expect that everything will be easy, for the thirst for power and worldly interests often stands in our way. . . . In such a society, politics, mass communications and economic, cultural, and even religious institutions become so entangled as to become an obstacle to authentic human and social development. As a result, the Beatitudes are not easy to live out; any attempt to do so will be viewed negatively, regarded with suspicion, and met with ridicule.

Persecutions are not a reality of the past, for today too we experience them, whether by the shedding of blood, as is the case with so many contemporary martyrs, or by more subtle means, by slander and lies. Jesus calls us blessed when people "utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account." (Mt 5:11) At other times, persecution can take the form of gibes that try to caricature our faith and make us seem ridiculous.

Accepting daily the path of the gospel, even though it may cause us problems: that is holiness. (para. 90-91, 94 in Gaudete et Exsultate).

Charity and Justice

On Saturday, May 18, parishioners will have the opportunity to make a pilgrimage to the Solanus Casey Center and the tomb of Blessed Solanus Casey in Detroit, MI. Solanus was known for his ministry of healing toward people of all faiths and atheists. He saw each person as loved by God. A pilgrimage to the Solanus Casey Center invites us to embody God's graces working through our lives.

We will carpool from St. Catherine at 10 am, and return around 7:30 pm. We will tour the Center and pray at his tomb, followed by Mass in the newly renovated chapel of St.

Bonaventure Monastery where Bl. Solanus was the porter. Mass will be followed by sharing a meal at the On the Rise Bakery, a ministry of the Capuchin Soup Kitchen that employs bakers who are recently released from prison or completed a substance abuse recovery program. The cost is $7 for the tour coupled with spending money for the gift shop and the meal at the bakery. Please RSVP by May 10 to Jay Landry at jlandry@stcatherinesiena.org, 269-978-2331 or Narcia Schultz-Acker at schacker0903@gmail.com to let them know if you will attend and if you are able to drive.
