Dear Parishioners,
Pentecost Sunday:
The final day of the Easter Season. But in reality, for the Church,
it's just the beginning!
That first Pentecost,
nearly 2,000 years ago,
signaled the beginning of the Church. As the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles, it also shows us how the Holy Spirit continues to guide and strengthen the Church. The gift of the Holy Spirit showed the Apostles that they now had everything that they needed to carry out what Christ wanted them to do all along: To go to all the nations and spread the Good News! Every generation of the Church needs to embrace what Christ intended. The message of the Gospel is not meant to be hidden, but instead it should always motivate the hearts and faith of all who will listen. Come Holy Spirit, fill our hearts and your Church with faith and love!

Our special year of prayer for our priests and vocations now draws to a close. As much as your priests and seminarians have appreciated your prayers during this special time, please don't stop praying for us as we need this to help us to be good and holy in the works that we do. Our new priest Fr. Jack Pfeiffer (ordained on Saturday) is celebrating his Mass of Thanksgiving today. May the prayers that we offered for more vocations bear fruit in the coming years!

Besides this Feast of Pentecost, our nation stops to reflect and pray this Memorial Day weekend to remember all those who have defended the freedom of our Nation, especially those who gave their lives to protect our freedom. May their service and sacrifice never be forgotten.

You may have heard the news that we have a Bishop -Elect. The Holy Father accepted Bishop Bradley's retirement this past week. Bishop Bradley will serve as the Diocesan administrator until July 25, 2023 when Bishop-Elect Edward M. Lohse will be consecrated as our new Bishop of Kalamazoo. Please keep both Bishop Bradley and Bishop-Elect Lohse in your prayers.

Thanks for reading!

Fr. Mark

Pope Francis names new Bishop for Catholic Diocese of Kalamazoo

MAY 23, 2023 (KALAMAZOO, MICH.): Pope Francis has accepted the resignation of Bishop Paul J. Bradley, 77, and appointed Msgr. Edward M. Lohse, 61, as the fifth Bishop for the Catholic Diocese of Kalamazoo. The resignation and appointment were announced today by the Holy See in Rome.

Bishop-elect Lohse is currently the Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia for the Diocese of Erie. Ordination of the new Bishop has been scheduled for 2 p.m. on Tuesday, July 25, 2023, at St. Augustine Cathedral, Kalamazoo.

As required by Church law, Bishop Bradley submitted his resignation to the Holy Father when he turned 75, on October 18, 2020. Bishop Bradley, who has served the Diocese since his installation on June 5, 2009, will continue as Apostolic Administrator until Bishop-elect Lohse's ordination.

"With thanksgiving to our Loving God and with deep gratitude to our Holy Father, Pope Francis, our Diocese's wait for our new Shepherd has yielded a wonderful gift in the selection of Bishop-Elect Edward M. Lohse as the fifth bishop of the Diocese of Kalamazoo," said Bishop Bradley. "We welcome him with open arms and hearts filled with joy. May he walk with us, teaching us and leading us in the ways of hope-filled disciples of our Risen Lord."

Bishop-elect Lohse is the sixth of seven children born to his parents, the late Edward and Ida Lohse, who raised their family in their hometown of McKean, Pa. He graduated from Cathedral Preparatory School and continued his education at Gannon University, Erie, Pa., where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History. He continued his seminary studies at St. Vincent Seminary, Latrobe, Pa., graduating with a Master of Divinity in 1987 and completing his requirements for ordination in 1988. More recently, Bishop-elect Lohse furthered his studies at the Pontifical Gregorian University earning both a License (2002) and Doctorate in Canon Law (2016).

He was ordained a priest by the late Bishop Michael J. Murphy on April 21, 1989, at St. Peter Cathedral, Erie, Pa. His first pastoral appointment was as a Parochial Vicar for St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, Corry, Pa. He was recognized by Pope Francis in 2015 as a Chaplain to his Holiness with the title Monsignor.

Throughout his thirty-four years as a priest, Bishop-elect Lohse has served in a number of pastoral, educational and diocesan assignments both for the Diocese of Erie as well as the Vatican. He has held administrative roles including Director of the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth, Chancellor and Vocation Director for the Diocese. Additionally, he served as an Official of the Congregation for the Clergy (a dicastery within the Vatican curia) from 2010-2015 and was an adjunct member of the faculty (from 2011-2015) for the Pontifical North American College, Vatican City.

"I am both humbled and honored to be asked by the Holy Father to become the fifth Bishop of Kalamazoo, and I am grateful to Bishop Bradley for his support," said Bishop-elect Lohse. "The task ahead is a daunting one, but none of us walks the path of faith alone. I know that I will need to count on the prayers of Bishop Bradley, the priests, religious and laity of the diocese, and I pledge my prayers for them in return. Together, we will go forward to proclaim Christ, and to meet him in the hearts of all God's people in the Diocese of Kalamazoo." As Bishop of the Diocese of Kalamazoo, Bishop-elect Lohse will be the chief shepherd of the close to 80,000 Catholics who reside in the nine counties of Southwest Michigan that make up the Diocese: Allegan, Barry, Van Buren, Kalamazoo, Calhoun, Berrien, Cass, St. Joseph and Branch.

Reflection on the Readings

Today we celebrate Pentecost, the gift of the Holy Spirit to the first disciples/apostles and us. In the Gospel passage, we hear Jesus telling the disciples that He is sending them, just as the Father sent Him. We also know from other passages that Jesus told them to remain in Jerusalem to await the coming of the Spirit. What we don't hear much about is what the disciples did in Jerusalem while they waited; I think the implication is that they didn't do much. The disciples were still uncertain of what was to come next, and what they were supposed to do/how to do it. All that changed at Pentecost; the disciples went from being timid and uncertain to boldly proclaiming Jesus and His resurrection. This became a life-long mission which they performed with no regard to their personal safety; in fact, it cost several of them their very lives. In short, the coming of the Holy Spirit changed their lives in a very dramatic fashion.

We, too, have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. While our receipt was likely not as dramatic as was the Apostles, we received the same Spirit. Jesus speaks the same words to us as we heard Him speak to the first disciples..." I am sending you." St. Paul tells us, as he told the Corinthians, that there are many manifestations of the Spirit, but the manifestation of the Spirit to each of us is given for some benefit. As we near the end of the Easter season, ask yourself what gift(s) the Spirit has given to you and for what (whose) benefit it was given. May we all make the gifts of the Spirit as evident in our lives as the first apostles did!

Volunteers Needed for Vacation Bible School

Registration for VBS 2023 ends on May 31, but we still need volunteers to make this year's VBS a huge success! If you're able to help with your time, talent, or financially, please contact us at faith@stcatherinesiena.org OR signup through our website to volunteer at:

<https://stcatherinesiena.org/vbs>. Thank you!

One of our most complimented pieces in the church sanctuary is our baptismal font. It is a beautiful symbol of welcoming new members into our faith family. We welcome and encourage parishioners to take holy water home with you, but we unfortunately have to make a change to how this is done.

Over the past few months, we have experienced a strange phenomena with the water in the font becoming bubbled/foamed up. Our maintenance crew has drained and scrubbed the font multiple times, which is a significant undertaking.

After much detective work and observations, we can only assume that a possible culprit is from the submersion of bottles from homes that may have soap residue in them. While we never want to deter anyone from taking home the blessed water, moving forward we ask you to no longer use the baptismal font as a means to fill your bottles.

Instead, we have put a vessel of holy water in the church, near the back, so all can fill holy water bottles there.

We hope this will clear up the baptismal font bubbles, or we will be back to the drawing board!

Please feel free to share any questions or concerns with our front office.

We appreciate everyone's cooperation and attention to this request.

Thank you!

Total Pledged: $177,405

of Pledges: 384

Please keep in mind our Knights of Columbus have generously pledged to donate $1.00 for every parishioner or family who donates to the BAA, by June 1. All money raised will support the community where Fr. Ben is going for his Sabbatical. Please donate today. Thank you!

Respect Life Ministry Car Wash June 3

Our Respect Life Ministry invites you to TREAT YOUR FATHER (a little early) to a car wash on Saturday, June 3, in the Stanley Centre parking lot during the 4:00 pm Mass. Cars will be washed by Respect Life Ministry members and friends. All free will donations will be put towards building a new Holy Family Novo Women's Healthcare Center, run by Deacon Bouchard of St. Augustine.

Primetimers Meet June 5

Primetimers will meet at Fletcher's Pub, 6946 West Q Ave, Kalamazoo 49009 (Texas Corners) at 11:30 am on Monday, June 5. There is outdoor seating if the weather cooperates! Wear a hat & sunscreen. Primetimers are St Catherine parishioners 50 years old or older, their friends, family and caregivers who enjoy eating a lunch they do not have to cook along with friendly conversations. We meet the first Monday of each month at a different local restaurant. No reservation is needed - just show up and ask for the Primetimers. Each person picks up their own bill. See you there! Questions: contact Paula White (269) 330-3762 or pwhitentc@mac.com.

Faith Formation Registration for 2023-2024

Mark your calendars! Registration for fall Faith Formation has begun! Registration forms will be available on our website at <https://stcatherinesiena.org>. Please reach out to George or Casey with any questions by emailing faith@stcatherinesiena.org. We are always looking for volunteers to help make faith formation possible! Let us know if you are willing and able to make this next year a success as either a full time catechist or can help occasionally as a sub. Thank you!
