Dear Parishioners,

I'm not sure what it is about the summer months, but it seems like they go a lot quicker than the rest of the year!

Here it is, the first week of August already. It's just a few weeks away from the start of the next school year!

Since it's August, this is just a reminder that our Faith Formation classes start next month! Pre-Registration has already closed. Please contact either George or Casey in our Faith Formation office for additional information.

August 15th, the Solemnity of the Assumption, will be a Holy Day of Obligation this year. We will have a vigil Mass on Monday the 14th and a morning Mass and an evening Mass on the 15th itself. Please keep this in mind as you plan your schedule for next week.

In the coming weeks, I'll have some additional information about the upcoming Fall activities and programs. Keep watching the bulletin!

Thanks for reading!
Fr Mark

Reflection on the Readings

Today we celebrate the familiar story of the Transfiguration of the Lord. All the readings today deal with God's wondrous glory and his omnipotence. The book of Daniel describes in vivid imagery the "Ancient One", whose clothing was bright as snow and the hair on his head as white as wool. The Ancient One is God and the imagery speaks to His divine status of wisdom and purity. In the second reading, Peter describes his experience as a witness to Jesus' miraculous transfiguration. He reports trembling in fear as God proclaims, "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased." Remember that in Biblical history, the top of a mountain was considered the site of divine revelation. In Matthew's Gospel, the three disciples accompany Jesus to the top of the mountain where they were so astonished at the transfiguration of Jesus that they "fell prostrate and were very much afraid." Jesus is radiant with light and assures them this was not something they should fear. As we reflect on these readings, what can we take away for our life of faith today? While we may never make it to a mountaintop for divine revelation, our Lord Jesus wants to give us too a glimpse of His glory. He wants to assure us, just like the three disciples that He is the Lord, the Son of God. He wants us to ask the Holy Spirit to give us the eyes of faith to 'see' Jesus in His true glory. He wants us to let go of fear and anxiety and the need to be in control, instead trusting Him and resting in His peace. He gives us the most miraculous gift of all when He offers Himself to each of us in the Holy Eucharist at every Mass. As we receive this spiritual nourishment for our daily lives as disciples, may we repeat the words of St Peter, "Lord, it is good that we are here."

Be Part of a Legacy with the Bishop Paul J. Bradley Endowment

A hallmark of Bishop Bradley's pastoral ministry during his 14 years as the Bishop of the Diocese of Kalamazoo has been that of accompanying all of us on our Journey of Faith, and encouraging us to live our lives following Jesus' command to Love God and to Love one another as Jesus loves us. What has always been close to Bishop Bradley's heart is supporting all those ministries and organizations which are dedicated to serving those most in need.

In honor of his decades of active ministry in the Church, and his 14 years as the Shepherd of our Diocese, the Catholic Foundation of Southwestern Michigan has created The Bishop Paul J. Bradley Endowment. Gifts to the Endowment will be used to support the continued good works of local agencies helping those most in need. You can be a part of Bishop Bradley's legacy with your gift to the endowment.
