Reflection on the Readings

Today marks the end of the liturgical year as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The readings continue the theme from last week, that of accountability. In both the first reading and the psalm we hear about how God will tend to His people: seeking out the lost, healing the sick and injured, and preparing a great banquet for them in the sight of their enemies. In the Gospel passage Jesus tells us that He is, in fact, the Good Shepherd; we need look no further. However, there is a flip side to both the first reading and the Gospel, and it is the same message we heard last week. There will be an accounting. Jesus makes it clear what His criteria will be: did we care for those less fortunate than ourselves? Did we feed the hungry? Did we clothe the naked? Did we comfort the sick, welcome the stranger, visit those imprisoned? Or were we more concerned about our own well-being, placing our needs and wants ahead of others? These are the things that matter to Jesus, and as our Lord they should matter to us also...not because we can buy our way to heaven by doing them, but because by doing these things we show our love for Jesus by doing as he commands. So, the real question becomes, did we love Jesus enough to be His hands and feet during our lives? If an examination of our self-conscience suggests we're not doing as good a job of loving as we should be, then this is a good time to both acknowledge that fact and begin to work on improving. Our Good Shepherd is always ready to help!

Join St. Catherine's Buddy Up Walkers!

It can be hard to get moving and stay consistent in your health journey when the cold weather hits! We've got you covered! Our health ministry has launched a new walking group to help you do just that. 'Buddy Up' with us every Wednesday at 10:00 am in the Stanley Centre Gym. If you have any questions, please contact Paula White at pwhitenc@mac.com or 269-330-3762.

Gospel Mission Sock and Underwear Drive

Please consider donating a NEW pair of socks or underwear for the homeless at the Gospel Mission. All sizes are needed for men, women, and children. Items can be placed on the table located in the narthex from December 1 through the 18. Thank you for your help and generosity. If you have any questions please contact Michele at 269-808-2452 or Mary Jo at 269-569-0037.

Connecting with Parishes was a Success!

A couple weeks ago, some of our staff joined together with other parishes for mass, relationship building, and professional development. All of it was hosted by Bishop Lohse and the Diocesan Pastoral Center staff at St. Martin of Tours Parish. More than 100 parish staff members attended, representing nearly all the 59 parishes in the diocese. We enjoyed representing St. Catherine of Siena and connecting with others in the diocese.

Priests in the Kalamazoo area parishes are working together during the Advent season to offer a schedule that meets the needs and convenience of many people. Rather than every parish having its own service and trying to find priests to assist at each one, we are going to offer services throughout the area, and priests will be available at the end of each service for individual confessions.

You are invited to participate in the Central Deanery area Advent Penance Services.
