We are called to honor the Lord by serving each other in hope.

Memorial Day

REMEMBER AND HONOR

May 25, 2025
Sixth Sunday of Easter

1150 West Centre Ave. • Portage, MI • www.stcatherinesiena.org • (269) 327-5165

In case of after-hours emergency, death, or danger of death, please call: (269) 598-0357

Dear Parishioners,

It's been a very quick month of May. After Easter, the calendar was full and we have a new Pope as well! As we find ourselves at this final weekend of May, it's also the time of year that we acknowledge all of the graduates in our parish. I know that we have many schools represented at our parish and each one has a different date for their graduation. Please know that we will keep you all in our prayers during this special time in your life and wish you well in the future!

We are now several weeks into our Bishop's Annual Appeal for 2025. If you haven't done so already, please prayerfully consider a pledge to this annual effort to support the many ministries that are sponsored by the Diocese of Kalamazoo. As always, we need your help and prayers to make this successful and thank you for all your support in the past. In a special way, we pray for our seminarians, especially for Paul Thuantho who will be ordained to the Priesthood for the Diocese of Kalamazoo next week on Saturday, May 31st. The cost of educating a seminarian goes up every year and as we plan for the fall, this will not be an exception. Thank you for supporting the education of your priests and seminarians through the Bishop's Appeal.

On Monday, we will remember those who have served our country. It is Memorial Day, a day to remember all those who have protected the freedom of our country. Since I have had several of my family members in the military, this day always has a special meaning for me. Thank you, Vets, for your service!

Please remember, in most of the dioceses of the United States, the Solemnity of the Ascension will be celebrated next Sunday, June 1st (as we will here in Kalamazoo/Portage). Only a few of the dioceses in the United States continue to celebrate the Ascension on Ascension Thursday, 40 days after our Lord's Resurrection.

Thanks for reading!

Fr. Mark

First Holy Communion

Join us in prayer for those who have received their First Holy Communion this May. Their names will be listed in the June 1st bulletin!

Reflection on the Readings

Today's Gospel reading from John is like a gold mine! It contains nuggets of golden promises to sustain us through the trials we will all face in this life. The apostles must have been shaken to hear Jesus' final words before His arrest and crucifixion. Jesus knows their fears and offers several promises to sustain them in the days and years ahead. These same promises are given to us.

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." Jesus promises that for those who believe, those who love and follow Him, the Holy Trinity will come to live in our souls. Is your soul ready to welcome the Holy Trinity? Is it a place of holiness?

Jesus then promises that after His Ascension, "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have told you." Jesus taught His disciples many things. Much of what he taught them they didn't understand until after His resurrection. The Gospel writers, inspired by the Holy Spirit, were able to explain His words and record them for us. That same Holy Spirit leads and guides us in the everyday situations we face. It is on us to be listening for His voice.

"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you." Jesus leaves us His peace, but it is not the peace we normally think of. His peace is not a peace that comes from the world. This peace is offered to us again by God through the priest at every Mass. It does not promise the absence of suffering or hardship or pain. Rather, it remains uncompromised even when these events arise. The love of God for believers continues undisturbed through any trials, even death. Jesus tells us we should rejoice even when we lose a loved one because they are going to glory with the Father. This is the abiding peace of wholeness and tranquility that can only come from the Lord.

It is easy to forget these comforting words of Jesus through the ups and downs of our daily lives. But God always fulfills His promises. We may forget Him at times but He never forgets us. May we always be on the lookout for how God is working in our lives, just as He said He would. Let us pray: "Jesus, help us to trust in your promises." These promises Jesus gave His disciples 2000 years ago are also for all believers in 2025!
