
St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church

We are called to honor the Lord by serving each other in hope.

You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor
as yourself.

Dear Parishioners,

It's the middle of July and that means that it is time for us to have our Vacation Bible School. True North, our theme for this year's VBS, starts on Monday and will last until Friday the 18th. This summer event takes months of planning and preparation, with so much that goes into making it a success. As we get ready to do VBS once again, a special thank you to everyone who has supported us with donations and of course all of our many volunteers that make it possible for us to have VBS. I appreciate all these behind-the-scenes efforts that get us ready and all those who are able to spend time with our youth throughout the coming week. Please keep our staff, volunteers and youth in your prayers in the coming week for a successful year!

Since last weekend was a holiday weekend, I didn't get a chance to thank everyone for their parish support throughout the past fiscal year. Our fiscal year goes from July 1st until June 30th of the following year. This past year of 2024-2025 was a "tornado recovery year." Due to all the damage, especially with things that were not covered by insurance, we had items that needed to be replaced or repaired. All this is captured in the past fiscal year as well as projects and repairs that we already had planned to do. We will have a final summary of this soon that will be published in a future edition of the bulletin.

In the weeks following the conclusion of VBS, we still have some projects that we were not able to get to last summer and now we finally will be able to start. As the schedule for work on these projects is confirmed, I will keep you informed. By the time fall rolls around, I hope we are finally caught up on all the things we planned to do last year!

Thanks for reading!

Fr. Mark

Reflection on the Readings

In today's first reading, we hear Moses telling the people that there isn't anything mysterious about God's laws. They weren't up in the sky or stored in a remote place where they were inaccessible. They were written down in the book of the law, and in the people's mouths and hearts. All they had to do was follow them.

We've heard about how lengthy the book of the law was by Jesus' time. There were many rules that the Jewish people were expected to follow. But they boiled down to two commandments, as the scholar of the law correctly answered Jesus in today's Gospel reading...love God with all your heart, mind, strength and being, and love you neighbor as yourself. But because he wanted to test Jesus, he pushed the issue by asking "who is my neighbor?" I can imagine Jesus, speaking to someone today, using a phrase like "it isn't rocket science, figure it out." However, Jesus, being very patient, gave the scholar the story of the good Samaritan. He then answered the scholar's question with one of His own...who was neighbor to the robber's victim?" When the scholar again answered correctly, Jesus told him to go and do likewise.

Jesus' message is the same for us today. His commandments are unchanged and are what we will be judged on when we stand before Him one day. Our families, our communities, indeed our entire world is full of people that need our attention, our prayers and our help. Ignoring them is not an option for a Christian. There are many ways we can reach out to people in need; simple acts of kindness are important, and we all have time, talent and treasure to share. We all can do more, and we must. That is the challenge for each of us...and it isn't rocket science.

Reflection by parishioner John Ceglarek
