Dear Parishioners,

After being away a few days this past week for our annual convocation of priests for the Diocese of Kalamazoo, it's time to get back to a normal schedule. Of course, arriving back after all of these meetings and conferences, I come back to a nice Saturday evening of activities this weekend. The Knights of Columbus are having their Fall Tootsie Roll drive and after the Saturday night Mass, it's a Mac and Cheese event night in Marian Hall. Following this, there is a movie night over at Stanley Centre. It should be an enjoyable evening. Thank you, Knights, for putting on this parish dinner (and most everyone likes mac and cheese).

One of the priorities that I had this summer was to try to get the grounds back to "normal" after the tornado. This meant working on the parking lot, some replacement fencing, landscaping, and in particular, our Knights Council helped out with the landscaping by cleaning up around the grounds. The council also made a donation to help us re-landscape the islands. As we are now in the last weeks of the grass growing season, the lawns look really nice. Thank you Knights for your work and generosity to make these landscaping projects possible. It took a lot of hands and also the hard work of our staff to make this possible.

Another big project we have been working on during the spring, summer, and now early fall is the heating and cooling system in the main building. Our controls had literally gone bonkers and hopefully you have noticed that the temperature inside the building is a lot more comfortable. These systems only last so long and it was beyond time to get these things worked on and repairs made to some of the mechanical items.

A little rebate from Consumers Energy helps pay for the project as well! The work has finally wrapped up and just little adjustments here and there need to be made.

Thanks for reading!

Fr. Mark

Reflection on the Readings

In the ancient world, leprosy was a word to be feared. Under the Mosaic law, a leprous person was ritually unclean and cut off from the community. Even outside of Israel, leprosy brought shame and isolation, as in today's first reading where Naaman, commander of the Syrian army, has been brought low due to his condition. His only ray of hope is to seek the prophet Elisah, who commands Naaman via messenger to plunge seven times in the Jordan River, "and you shall be clean." Yet Naaman's initial response to this simple command is not obedience, but anger. "Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me, and stand...and wave his hand over the place" (2 Kings 5:11). The mighty commander's pride is injured by the simplicity and humility of the request, and it is only with difficulty that he is convinced to dip seven times in the Jordan, at which point his skin becomes "again like the flesh of a little child."

In today's gospel Jesus takes "pity" on ten lepers whose lives have similarly been upended; he tells them to show themselves to the priest, as if they were already healed, and "as they were going they were cleansed." Like Naaman, these lepers are healed even as they demonstrate their faith in the healing. And yet despite all being cleansed, only one leper—a foreigner, like Naaman—seems to link his healing to Jesus' powerful word and returns to thank him.

In the Bible, leprosy also serves as a metaphor for the isolating nature of sin, which cuts us off from both God and our fellow man. Like Naaman and the ten lepers, we need healing. Yet often, we want healing on our own terms--either as a grand show or a chance to prove ourselves with great deeds--when all that is truly required is simple faith and a childlike trust in the word of Jesus. Perhaps it is no coincidence that Naaman's flesh becomes childlike, for "unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18:3).

Reflection by parishioner John Ceglarek

KofC Membership

Become a Knight today. Did you know that the international organization known as the Knights of Columbus is 143 years old? That we were founded by a parish priest, Blessed Fr. Michael J. McGivney? That Pope St. John Paul II called the Knights the strong right arm of the church? Did you know that Knights change lives and save lives through our "Faith in Action Programs"?

Bishop Lohse recently published a letter that contained the following:

"As a member of the Knights of Columbus myself, I have witnessed tremendous work these men accomplish in our diocese. However, the work is never done and for the Knights to continue their good works of charity, the organization needs to grow. I encourage every man in the Kalamazoo Diocese who is a practicing Catholic and at least 18 years of age prayerfully to consider joining the ranks of this exemplary organization."

Surviving the holidays

We invite you to join us for Surviving the Holidays on Sunday, October 26th at 12:30 - 2:30 PM. This is a one-time, 2-hour program addressing the issues that arise around the fall holiday celebrations for a grieving person and family. Linen Guild

Looking for a low-stakes way to support the parish? Please prayerfully consider joining our Linen Guild! To make sure that we have clean, fresh altar linens and purificators for each and every Mass, we rely on our Linen Guild to care for the linens, purificators, and corporals used at Mass. This includes home laundering, bleaching (as needed), and ironing the linens, which members pick up and return to the church each week by the Thursday before weekend Masses. Your commitment is for a month-long period, and depending on the number of volunteers, you may only be responsible for one month per year. Can't commit to an entire month? Please consider being added to our substitute list. In the event that a regular volunteer isn't able to take care of the linens, we will reach out to our subs to fill in as needed. Thank you for any consideration! Call the office or stop in or email Erin at emorgan@stcatherinesiena.org

St. Mary Autumn Gala

Join us for a formal evening filled with cocktails, charcuterie, dinner, desserts, and dancing at Fr. Bart Hall! The night promises to be exciting and entertaining, featuring raffles and live auctions you won't want to miss. We also have a special comedy set planned, featuring Anne Fackler. All proceeds will support the needs of St. Mary Parish, so join us for this worthy cause! Reserve your seat(s) now and gather your friends for a table of 8! $55 per person or $400 for a table of 8.

Reserve a seat at www.stmarykazoo.org/gala or call (269) 342-0621.

Missing Jewelry Found

St. Vincent de Paul Thanksgiving Baskets

This year, the St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. Catherine will be delivering Thanksgiving "Baskets" to 100 families in our community facing food insecurity. These baskets contain everything needed for a complete Thanksgiving meal.

How You Can Help:

Food Collection: Begins October 18th and ends November 16th. Pick up tags from the cornucopia in the narthex, take as many as you wish, and bring the purchased items to any Mass.

Cash Donations: We're collecting funds to purchase turkeys. Donation envelopes are available in the narthex.

Drivers Needed: Volunteers are needed to deliver the baskets on Saturday, November 22nd, the weekend before Thanksgiving. A sign-up sheet and instructions for drivers are available in the narthex.

Together, we can make this Thanksgiving special for families in need!
