FROM THE OFFICE OF BISHOP FABBRO

Friday, February 8, 2023

This morning, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops issued four pastoral letters "That we May Walk Together" on reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples. Intended as a framework for local engagement with Indigenous Peoples, the letters are the fruit of many months of listening, encounter, and dialogue with them, including through Listening Circles, the Indigenous Delegation to the Vatican in April 2022, and Pope Francis' Apostolic Voyage to Canada in July.

The letters (in English and French) are posted on the diocesan website at this link. There is a separate letter for each of:

- The People of God in Canada
- First Nations
- The Métis

The Intuit in Canada

Today, the letters were shared via email with local community chiefs, Métis group leaders, and our contacts in urban Indigenous communities. The emails included a link to the appropriate letter and a promise that more communications will be coming soon.

Later this month the Diocese will send additional copies of the letters with a cover letter from Bishop Fabbro and remind Indigenous leaders of the availability of funding from our portion of the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund and our education efforts using the speaker series for staff across in the Diocese.

The Church is the house where we 'conciliate' anew, where we meet to start over and to grow together. It is the place where we stop thinking as individuals and acknowledge that we are brothers and sisters of one another.

POPE FRANCIS

Although Christian charity was not absent, and there were many outstanding instances of devotion and care for children, the overall effects of the policies linked to the residential schools were catastrophic.

What our Christian faith tells us is that this was a disastrous error, incompatible with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
