This is the time to move on.....

Transition is always difficult, and it is a normal part of our priestly ministry. However, moving from one parish family to another is still not easy because we become attached to our parish community. I became the pastor of Dublin and Seaforth in 2019 and have completed the 6-year term. In 2020, I became the pastor of four parishes, when Mitchell and Kinkora were joined with Dublin and Seaforth. Next year would have been the completion of my 6-year term for our family of parishes.

The Bishop has asked me help in another family of parishes—Northern Huron-Perth Catholic Family of Parishes, where I will be the pastor for Brussels, Wingham and Listowel, beginning the first weekend in July.

Since this is the time for me to move on, I want to take this opportunity to thank the many people in our parishes who have supported me. I will start with the staff: Sally (bookkeeper) and Cathy (secretary) and all of the previous secretaries. Next, the pastoral team: Fr. Jude (1 year), Fr. Ronnie (4 years), Deacon Dan and Karen (pastoral minister). Thank you to the current and past parish councils, finance and building committees, CWLs and Knights of Columbus. Thank you also to the sacristans, altar servers, organists and choirs, and all of the other members or our parish committees/groups, the principals of our schools, and of course our parishioners. I am grateful for the love and the prayers each of you have provided.

The Family of Parishes becomes the “family” of the priests. Please pray for all new priests and continue to keep me in your prayers.

Father Innocent Ibeh is coming to you as a first time pastor and I hope each of you will show him your full support, as you have shown me.

There are many other people and groups that I have not named here, but please know how grateful I am for the love, prayers, support and service you have given me over the past six years as your pastor.

I have two more Sundays here with you, so there is still time for me to see all of you.

God bless you all. You will remain in my prayers.

Father Philip.
