Jesus taught us how to pray.

Our Father... Jesus taught us to turn the eyes of our hearts towards his eternal Father, and to call upon him in love and confidence as our Father; who art in heaven... who exists beyond the visible world of nature, beyond the invisible world of angels, beyond all finite beings whatsoever, dwelling in unapproachable Light; hallowed be thy Name... let the works of Christians reflect your Light in the world and cause your Name to be revered everywhere; Thy Kingdom come... let the Holy Spirit come to reign in every heart; Thy will be done... incline our hearts in the Spirit to acts of faith, hope, and love, and let your saving work in souls everywhere come to fulfillment in eternal life; on earth as it is in heaven... let the contemplative life of the blessed in heaven descend upon our minds here below — at least insofar as it possible in this life by the light of grace; Give us this day our daily bread... give us today a foretaste of life in the world to come, especially in the Eucharist; and forgive us our trespasses... let the working power of your merciful love and the healing rays of your truth permeate us through and through and release us from every unholy and unreasonable impulse; as we forgive those who trespass against... as we lay down at your feet all rights to payback from those who have wronged us; and lead us not into temptation... though temptation may come for our benefit, let it not triumph over us in any way; but deliver us from the Evil One... that is, let all the works of the thief, the murderer, the liar, and the accuser of the brethren come to nothing in our hearts.

Amen. Let it be so.
