

Accounting News:

The Diocese of London has recently switched to a new accounting program as of October 31, 2025.

As with any new program, there are lots of learning curves along the way. The reports are structured differently. Some totals and classifications may look different.