PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
 The words spirit, wind, and breath are, essentially the same word in Hebrew. Thus, the same Spirit:

- At the moment of creation as a mighty wind swept over the waters
- At the cave as a tiny whispering sound experienced by the prophet Elijah
- Breathed by Jesus upon the apostles
- Breathed by the bishop upon the oil of chrism used in the sacraments of baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders

That same breath of God has come upon us as a people and called us to be a liberating and healing presence in a broken and sinful world. The word Pentecost comes from the Greek word for fifty. It was a Jewish agricultural feast that was celebrated fifty days (or seven weeks) after the Feast of Unleavened Bread. It marked the end of the grain harvest and commemorated the giving of the Law on Mt. Sinai. The Law is the sign or seal of the covenant between God and the people of Israel. The Christian feast called Pentecost celebrates the bestowal of the promised Paraclete or Advocate upon the eleven apostles, the seal of the new covenant of grace won for us through the blood of the Lamb. Just as at Sinai, the twelve tribes became a people; so, in the Upper Room, the eleven apostles and other close followers of Jesus (including his mother) became the quhal, ecclesia, church. Thus, this feast, which concludes the Easter season, is truly the Birthday of the Church!

This solemn feast brings the fifty days of Easter to an end. Tomorrow we resume the "ordinary time" of the Church. One who symbolizes clearly the "ordinary" in an "extraordinary" way is Mary, the mother of God. A year ago, the Holy Father, Pope Francis, established the Monday after Pentecost as the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church. We will resume our journey through the Gospel of Luke on June 30. Jesus invites the apostles and us to follow him to Jerusalem. On our way, we are accompanied by Mary as we finger the beads that tell the story of our salvation. Obstacles and sufferings threaten to obscure our way; but the intercession of a mother will help us overcome all sin and fear and will lead us to an encounter with her Son!

Yours in Jesus and Mary,

Father Bill Foley

"In resurrecting ancient and long forgotten rituals, practices, and stages, (RCIA) seeks to retrieve an ancient and quite radical vision of the church, one that places conversion at the very heart of the Christian experience. It reshapes community roles, radically redefines the contours of catechesis, and sees baptism as the taproot and catalyst for life-long transformation... Let us pause here for a moment to savor and probe some of these implications. First...No longer is the formation of converts a few hasty months of private instruction in doctrine. No longer is conversion a private matter, worked out in hushed anonymity ... No longer is baptism to be a quiet affair... Instead, initiation once more assumes the honor, the centrality, and the symbolic amplitude it enjoyed in the early church. Converting individuals now assumes center stage in the assembly's worship." ## FROM THE PARISH

Our Summer Seminarian: Ben Bralove

I have just completed my first year of seminary at St. John Paul II Seminary. While I grew up just a few blocks from the Blessed Sacrament, I converted to Catholicism in college. I am excited that I will be able to spend more time getting to know my home parish. After my completing my undergraduate studies, I continued my lifelong goal of becoming a doctor and attended Boston University School of Medicine. Subsequently, I chose to specialize in Emergency Medicine, conducted my residency training in the Bronx, and practiced in the emergency room for two years in Manhattan. Throughout the last few years practicing medicine, I felt a stronger and stronger calling from God in prayer to make a radical change in my life and pursue a vocation to the priesthood. I look forward to meeting, praying, and working with you all this summer!

Second Collection Next Week

Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Please be generous. For more info, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Summer Choir

Come sing with us in the summer choir at 5:30 on Sunday evening. Arrive in the church by 5:00 to prepare for that day's Mass. We've been waiting for you to come! Contact Ginny Curtin: gucurtin@gmail.com.

St. Pius X Parish Library Needs You!

Are you a college student majoring in library science who would like to gain experience in a library? Are you a retiree who enjoys reading great works of literature? Our library is a wonderful resource in need of your skills! If you would like to volunteer, contact the Office of Adult Faith Formation at 202.449.3974. New Summer hours are coming soon!

Any middle or high school students of the parish who are interested in earning service hours should contact Marilyn Campbell, Youth Minister at mcampbell@blessedsacramentdc.org

House Blessings and Enthronement of THE DIVINE MERCY as King of Home and Family

Would You Like To Have Your Home Blessed and Enthroned by Jesus, The Divine Mercy as King and Ruler of home and family?

A long time tradition in the Catholic Church is having our home blessed with the new waters of Easter. The blessing prays that your home is filled with God's Peace and Holiness.

A much more recent tradition is having Jesus, The Divine Mercy Enthroned As King of Home and Family. (On Divine Mercy Sunday, the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament Parish was Enthroned a Divine Mercy Parish!)

If you wish to have your home blessed and/or enthroned then kindly e-mail Deacon Leo Flynn and include your name(s), address, phone number, and e-mail address and send it to leo@theflynnnteam.com. Also, kindly specify which days/dates and times may work best per your schedule to have your home blessed & enthroned (week days are available) and whether you are or are not a registered parishioner of our Parish. Those without computers may contact Deacon Leo directly at 703.328.4762 and leave your name and telephone number (speak slowly and clearly) in his voice mail and he will return your call.

Prayer for a Suffering Church

Lord Jesus Christ, through your Incarnation you accepted a human nature and lived a real, human life. Setting aside the glory of your divinity, you met us face to face in the vulnerability of our humanity.

Though without sin, you accepted sinners, offering forgiveness and placing yourself before even the most unworthy as a servant and a friend. You became small and weak in the estimation of the powerful, so that you might elevate to glory the small and weak of the world.

Your descent into our nature was not without risk, as it exposed you to the assaults of the darkest and most terrifying of humanity's fallen desires—our cruelty and narrowness, our deceptions and our denials. All this culminated in the cross, where your divine love was met with the full fury of our malice, our violence, and our estrangement from your grace.

You offered yourself to us with innocence and receptivity, and this was met with the abuse of your body, humiliation and mockery, betrayal and isolation, torture and death. All this—even the dereliction of feeling abandoned by God—you accepted. You became a victim, so that all those victimized since the beginning of the world would know you as their advocate. You went into the darkness, so that all those compelled into the dark by human wickedness would discover in you a radiant light.

Grant we pray, O Lord, healing for all victims of sexual abuse. Purify your Church of corruption. Bring justice to those who have been wronged. Grant consolation to all who are afflicted. Cast your light to banish the shadows of deception. Manifest to all your advocacy of those who have been so cruelly hurt, and your judgment upon those who, having perpetrated such crimes, remain unrepentant. Compel those in your Church whom you have entrusted to safeguard the innocent and act on behalf of the victims to be vigilant and zealous in their duties. Restore faith to those from whom it has been stolen, and hope to those who have despaired.

Christ the Victim, we call out to you!

Strengthen your faithful to accept the mission placed before us, a mission of holiness and truth. Inspire us to become advocates of those who have been harmed. Grant us strength to fight for justice.

Impart to us courage so that we might forthrightly face the challenges to come. Raise up saints from your Church, and grant us the grace to become the saints you desire us to be. This we ask of you, who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.
