PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parish Family & Visitors:

The summer pilgrimages to rejuvenating places of reunion and rest have begun in earnest. The theme of travel is also the motif for the gospel of Luke. As we heard on the last Sunday of June, Jesus had set his course towards Jerusalem where he would fulfill his mission. Along the way, he imparted many lessons to his companions and those they would meet. The genuine follower of Jesus has to learn to do great things with few resources, to depend on the kindness of others, and to give beyond without the expectation of receiving. Hospitality was not an option in the brutal heat of the desert; but its rewards were and are more than can be imagined. What must I bring for my spiritual journey? Two requirements come to mind: prayer and Eucharist – the food for the journey. Little else matters. Perhaps the somewhat less hectic days of summer can provide us with the opportunity to reflect on these essential components of the Christian life. Where and when do I pray every day? Where have I celebrated Eucharist? How have I been called to “be” Eucharist for another?

Yours in Christ,

Father Bill Foley

PRIEST ANNOUNCEMENTS

Father Emanuel Magro

We welcome Father Magro back to Blessed Sacrament after a hiatus of 23 years! Father lived and ministered here in the 1980's and 1990's while he was pursuing advanced degrees at Catholic University. A native of Malta, Father was ordained in 1979. He spent five years in parish ministry in Germany before coming to the United States. He left Blessed Sacrament to finish his doctoral dissertation while living at Our Lady of Victory in Washington and working at the Library of Congress. He returned to Malta at the request of his bishop to direct a minor seminary. In 2013, Father took a position as a teacher of the science and art of teaching the faith at Catholic University. He then lived at St. Patrick's in Rockville. About two years ago, Father discerned that he was called to leave "academia" and devote his attention to parish ministry full-time. He spent the past year at St. Bernadette's in Silver Spring. Father Magro comes to us as an accomplished teacher and preacher with great experience in retreat ministry and spiritual direction.

Monsignor Maurice O'Connell

At the evening Mass on Sunday, June 23, "Father O" announced that that would be his final public Mass. His illness has progressed to the point that he is totally dependent on a continual flow of oxygen. Often he has two sources flowing into him at the same time. He does respond to e-mails; but visits and conversations do exhaust him. Please keep Father O in your prayers as he remembers you. He is grateful for all the affection and support parishioners have shown to him over the years!

SOCIAL CONCERNS/OUTREACH

Care for Creation Ministry Meeting

Thursday, July 18, 7pm Duffy Parish Center Main Level

Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si' calls us to care for God's creation. God created the world and entrusted it to us as a gift - how can we respond to the call to protect it?

"LAUDATO SI', mi' Signore" - "Praise be to you, my Lord". In the words of this beautiful canticle, Saint Francis of Assisi reminds us that our common home is like a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us. . . We see increasing sensitivity to the environment and the need to protect nature, along with a growing concern, both genuine and distressing, for what is happening to our planet.

Laudato Si', May 24, 2015

A group of parishioners has formed a Care for Creation Ministry at Blessed Sacrament in response to Pope Francis's call to protect our common home. Our next meeting is Thursday, July 18th at 7pm in the Duffy Center, parking lot level. All are welcome to attend.

House Blessings and Enthronement of THE DIVINE MERCY as King of Home and Family

Would You Like To Have Your Home Blessed and Enthroned by Jesus, The Divine Mercy as King and Ruler of home and family?

A long time tradition in the Catholic Church is having our home blessed with the new waters of Easter. The blessing prays that your home is filled with God's Peace and Holiness.

A much more recent tradition is having Jesus, The Divine Mercy Enthroned As King of Home and Family. (On Divine Mercy Sunday, the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament Parish was Enthroned a Divine Mercy Parish!)

If you wish to have your home blessed and/or enthroned then kindly e-mail Deacon Leo Flynn and include your name(s), address, phone number, and e-mail address and send it to leo@theflynnnteam.com. Also, kindly specify which days/dates and times may work best per your schedule to have your home blessed & enthroned (week days are available) and whether you are or are not a registered parishioner of our Parish. Those without computers may contact Deacon Leo directly at 703.328.4762 and leave your name and telephone number (speak slowly and clearly) in his voice mail and he will return your call.

Interested in Enjoying Family Togetherness in a Serene, Unplugged Environment?

If you are looking for ways to deepen your faith, have fun with family and friends, and creating lasting memories for you and your children, we invite you to consider attending the 2019 Labor Day Family Retreat at Camp Maria, Leonardtown, MD. (campmaria.org) This annual three-day retreat for adults, families and children takes place at a former camp for girls in Southern Maryland overlooking beautiful Breton Bay (about two hours from DC). The retreat features daily outdoor Mass, adult faith formation sessions with a priest and supervised crafts and sports for the children. Campers stay in furnished cabins and eat communal meals in a beautiful dining room with a spectacular view.

We are looking for families with young children to join our group in 2019. Please contact BS parishioner Susan Campbell (susanmariecampbell@yahoo.com, 202.360.8304) for more information.
