The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity-May 26, 2024 Theme: Our Active participation in the Perfect Union and Love of the Holy Trinity

Last Sunday, we commemorated the Solemnity of Pentecost, which marked the end of the Easter season. Today, with this Mass of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we resume the Ordinary Time we left off before we started the Lenten season. Although the word "Holy Trinity" is not explicitly in the Bible, we find its theological significance throughout the Scriptures, precisely through the Bible readings selected for this Mass. In the doctrine of the Holy Trinity, the Holy Mother Church teaches that there is One God in Three Persons. They are distinct without division (the Father is not the Son or the Holy Spirit. The Son is not the Father or the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is not the Father or the Son.) They are also equal without confusion (the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God.) Through the liturgy of this solemnity, our Holy Mother Church invites us to reflect on our active participation in the perfect union and love of the Holy Trinity. We are members of the Holy Trinity only when we observe God's commandments (first reading), accept Jesus' mission of making our brothers and sisters become Jesus' disciples (Gospel), and accept to suffer with Jesus so that we may also be glorified with him (second reading).

May this liturgy enable us to imitate the perfect unity and love of the Holy Trinity in our mission to make all nations Jesus' disciples. Amen.

The Great Commission

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had appointed for them.

17 When they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth.

19 "Go therefore" and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

20 "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.^e
