Females must wear evening shoes (no tennis, gym shoes, slippers, or ballerina slippers may be worn). Males: Formal attire. Tuxedos and dress shoes. Any shoes that resemble tennis/gym shoes with traditional tennis/gym shoe logos will be escorted from the premises. No dress suit, sweaters, vest, and regular slacks permitted (Durand's Tuxedo Consultants is available to assist you - 504-324-5099).

Attendees May Not Wear: Strapless dresses - Backless dresses - Cold shoulder dresses Sweetheart Cut - Two piece (with any part of the torso exposed) - Low cut dresses exposing cleavage - Short or street length dresses - Dresses with uneven hem lines - or "see through" sheer dresses exposing the 3 B's (breast, backs, or belly) or other immodest styles. Males and Females: May not have exposed tattoos and/or body piercings. No crowns or tiaras (Only the queen and her court may wear these distributed by prom coordinator)

Any SKDP student or guest improperly attired will not be admitted, allowed to remain at the prom or allowed to take pictures by the SKDP photographer or anywhere in the facility alluding to attendance at the SKDP Prom. If in doubt about appropriateness of your dress please bring your shawl! Do not say you left it in the car or at home as you will not be admitted. Cover shawls are not to be taken off once in the Prom if dress is in violation. The SKDP Photographer will not take pictures of anyone inappropriately attired.

Prom Behavior

1. SKDP students are responsible for their behavior and that of their male guests.
2. Anyone being disrespectful during the court presentation will be escorted from the premises.
3. Students are not to invite outside guests other than their male dates.
4. Students and guests are not allowed to sit on their date's lap or engage in inappropriate touching
5. Students and guests are not to dance inappropriately or perform any inappropriate acts.
6. Students and guests are reminded that under-age drinking is dangerous and is not permitted at this event. Attendees appearing under the influence of alcohol or drugs will not be permitted entrance or allowed to remain at the SKDP prom. (Refer to SKDP Handbook)
7. Students and guests are not to hang out in the lobby, outside the hotel or go to any other locations in the facility where the prom is being held.
