The Month of June is Dedicated to The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

THE TWELVE PROMISES OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

I will give them all the graces necessary for their state in life.

I will establish peace in their families.

I will comfort them in their trials.

I will be their secure refuge during life,
and, above all, in death.

I will shed abundant blessings on all their undertakings.

Sinners will find in My Heart an infinite ocean of mercy.

Lukewarm souls will become fervent.

Fervent souls will rapidly grow in holiness and perfection.

I will bless every place where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored.

I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.

The names of those who promote this devotion will be written in My Heart, never to be blotted out.

I promise thee, in the excessive mercy of My Heart, that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months, the grace of final penitence; they shall not die in My disgrace nor without receiving their Sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.

We, Christians, are the true Israel which springs from Christ.
For we are carved out of His Heart, as from a rock!

—Saint Justin Martyr—

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, teach me an entire forgetfulness of myself,
since that is the only way one can find entrance into You.

—Saint Claude La Colombiere—

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK

JUNE 22 - JUNE 29

"The right to the exercise of freedom, especially in moral and religious matters, is an inalienable requirement of the dignity of the human person."

(CCC 1738)

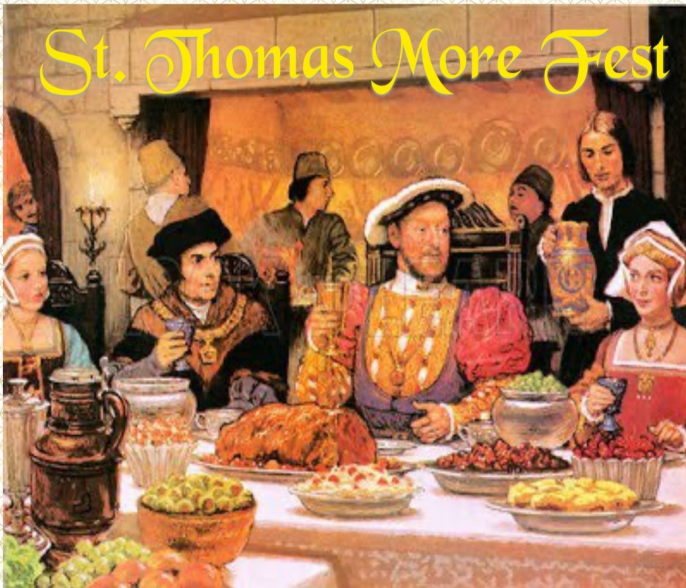

Religious Freedom Week starts on June 22, the feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher and ends on June 29, the feast of Saints Peter and Paul. This year's theme is Embracing the Divine Gift of Freedom. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) invites all Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom.

Bishop William A. Wack, CSC, will kick off Religious Freedom Week by praying the rosary for religious liberty in the world on Thursday, June 22 at 11:00 AM, CDT. You are invited to join us via live stream from the chapel at the Pastoral Center by clicking on the following link:

Liturgical Reminder: at the Traditional Latin Mass, celebrated with permission on the second and fourth Sunday of the month at 8:00 AM, the priest celebrant and congregation are bound to follow the instructions of the 1962 Roman Missal. At the Holy Sacrifice celebrated according to the Saint John XXIII's Missal of 1962, the only way to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion is directly on the tongue and, if possible, kneeling to the Blessed Sacrament at the altar rail.

"It is possible to live for the next life and still be merry in this."

~ St. Thomas More

Religious freedom certainly means the right to worship God, individually and in community as our consciences dictate.

But religious liberty, by its nature, transcends places of worship and the private sphere of individuals and families.

—Pope Francis—

A Lawyer's Prayer to Saint Thomas More

SAINT THOMAS MORE, counselor of law and statesman of integrity, merry martyr and most human of saints:

PRAY that, for the glory of GOD and in the pursuit of His justice, I may be trustworthy with confidences, keen in study, accurate in analysis, correct in conclusion, able in argument, loyal to clients, honest with all, courteous to adversaries, ever attentive to conscience. Sit with me at my desk and listen with me to my clients' tales. Read with me in my library and stand always beside me so that today I shall not, to win a point, lose my soul.

PRAY that my family may find in me what yours found in you: friendship and courage, cheerfulness and charity, diligence in duties, counsel in adversity, patience in pain—their good servant, and God's first.

AMEN.

SAINT THOMAS MORE

FEBRUARY 7, 1478 - JULY 6, 1535

Saint Thomas More was born in London in 1478. At the age of 14, he entered Oxford to begin his studies to become a lawyer. He entered the legal profession in 1502 at the age of 24, but spent the first two years contemplating joining the monks in the Carthusian monastery next to his home, whom he often joined in their spiritual exercises. Although he decided to remain in the secular world, he did not forget the monks who inspired him in the practice of his faith.

Thomas married his first wife, Jane, in 1505, and together they had four children. Jane passed away in 1511, and Thomas married widow Alice Middleton, who had a daughter of from her first marriage, whom Thomas accepted as his own child. He was a good and devoted father, who wrote letters to his children when he was away from them. He also saw to it that his daughters received the same education as his son.

As a skilled theologian and writer, among Thomas More's most famous written work is Utopia, about a fictional, idealistic island society. It is considered one of the greatest works of the late Renaissance.

After 1517, King Henry VIII began to give Thomas posts of increasing responsibility, naming him Lord Chancellor in 1529. Thomas became one of the king's most trusted friends and advisors. However, their relationship strained when Henry sought an annulment from his wife, Catherine. More refused to sign a letter to the Pope in support of the king, and realized that King Henry desired to break away from the Church, and purge anyone who disagreed with him.

Realizing he could not support King Henry VIII, Thomas More resigned in 1530. In 1534, Thomas was ordered to acknowledge the king's annulment to Catherine, the legitimacy of his marriage to Anne Boleyn, and his position as head of the Church. His refusal to accept the king's annulment or to acknowledge Henry as head of the Church led to his imprisonment in the Tower of London.

Thomas More went to trial on 1 July 1535 and after only fifteen minutes of deliberation, was convicted of the charge of treason. On 6 July, Thomas More was executed by decapitation. On his way to the execution, he joked with the executioners who helped him up to the scaffold by saying he would see himself down. His final words proclaimed he was, "the king's good servant, but God's first."

Thomas More was and still is widely remembered as a man of enormous integrity. He was canonized in 1935 by Pope Leo XIII. He is the patron saint of lawyers, politicians, civil servants, adopted children, and difficult marriages. His feast day is celebrated on June 22. Saint Thomas More, Patron Saint of Our Parish, Pray for Us!

*I think that when statesmen forsake their own private conscience for the sake of their public duties. . .
they lead their country by a short route to chaos.*

Occupy your mind with good thoughts, or the enemy will fill it with bad ones.

I do not care very much about what men say about me, provided that God approves of me.

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Whoever loveth me, loveth my hound!
