St Vincent de Paul Society
good works

On the weekend of December 28/29, we are invited to extend our Christmas giving to the ongoing charitable works coming directly from our parish. This will be the 5th Sunday collection benefitting the St. Patrick's Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

This past year, thanks solely to our parishioners' generosity, we helped neighbors in widely diverse situations:

Several people have suffered injuries and one a stroke that caused them to go through their entire savings just to stay housed. Others are selling everything they own (family furniture, etc.) to keep a roof over their heads. Regularly increasing rents contribute greatly to their problems

A nanny supporting her family lost her charge when he began school.

A woman with a spinal cord injury preventing her use of one of her arms needed food. Walking a great distance to a grocery store with the use of only one arm is nearly impossible.

Your contributions made a significant change in all of their lives. You would love to hear their expressions of gratitude. Many comment that they cannot believe that there are "people out there that do this."

And you do. And we are very grateful for whatever you can give. Each dollar is as important as every house call our active members make. Thank you very much.

Thank you!

Thanks to the many parishioners and friends of Saint Patrick's who worked very hard to make our Christmas celebrations so prayerful and beautiful. Many hands and hours went into making our church shine, both inside and out. I am especially grateful to Stephen Conner for decorating our church on the outside. I do hope all of you have had the opportunity to pass by Saint Patrick in the evening to see the beautiful lights surrounding our church. Cindy Niven had a hand in preparing our beautiful creche inside our church along with decorating the altar with beautiful flowers in honor of our Lord's nativity. Once again, our parish choir, under the direction of Deborah Benedict and accompanist Daniel Savio outdid themselves – the music and singing were angelic and added much to our worship.

I am also very grateful for the generous donations many of you made to our church over the holidays. Your financial support will help sustain the many wonderful programs we enjoy here at the parish. Your continued support will also help insure that the good news of Jesus Christ continues to be heralded in our local community of Larkspur and beyond.

This parish community is an inspiration to me and I look forward to another wonderful year ahead growing in faith alongside each of you, my fellow parishioners.

With warm good wishes and God's blessings on you and your family and friends, I wish each of you a happy and healthy New Year!

Monsignor Michael Padazinski
