Holy Communion Pyx

A pyx or pix is a small round container used in the Catholic and Anglican Churches to carry the consecrated host (Eucharist), to the sick or those otherwise unable to come to a church in order to receive Holy Communion.

Here at Blessed Sacrament, pyxides are purchased by the parish, and made available in a small basket on the communion rail for family members or care givers to take communion to the sick or homebound who are unable to attend Mass on the weekend. When the need for a pyx has been fulfilled, it can be returned to the basket to be used by others.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

The next St. Vincent de Paul meeting will be held on Monday, June 10th at 12:30 PM in the rectory. Please use the West entrance to the church.

Portraits

If you had your portrait taken during the April photography sessions but did not order additional portraits, your free 8x10 picture may be picked up from the Parish Office during regular business hours. The Parish Directory is currently being assembled.

Mass Intentions

The Mass Book for 2020 has arrived. In order to be fair to all interested parish members, the following rules will be in effect:

- Mass stipends will be accepted through the Parish Office.
- Please call the Parish Office, Tuesday through Friday only, at (414) 649-4720 to make an appointment to schedule Masses. Please be aware the office may not be able to accommodate your request without an appointment.
- If you are celebrating an anniversary (25th, 50th, etc.) and wish to schedule a Mass Intention for your occasion, we urge you to make arrangements as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

The Mass stipend is $10.00 per Mass (as determined by the Archdiocese and the Wisconsin Province of Catholic Bishops).

Please include in your prayers and ask for God's blessings the following men and women currently serving in our military:

PFC- Army SARA MAGNO
(Granddaughter of Lori & Lee Potega)

SPC - Army CODY MAGNO
(Grandson of Lori & Lee Potega)

PVT- Army Natl Guard BRITTANY SLICHTER
(Granddaughter of Patty Conners)

SPC-Army Reserve LUCAS SCHMIDT
