Second Sunday of Lent

A pregnant woman was walking in the store and met an old friend. Her friend exclaimed, "You are absolutely beaming!" The new life God placed in her womb radiated throughout her body. It was brightly visible on her face and in her eyes. Transformation and change usually happen from the inside out. It is very rare that simply imposing structure from the outside does any good. Yes, it is true that routines and habits can change when things are done differently. But, for this change to last there has to be an interior renewal and metamorphosis as well. Simply regulating behavior and bringing someone into conformity with accepted protocols doesn't mean their heart and soul come with them.

Peter was a homeless man who lived in a very remote and rudimentary tent community. He was happy to make his daily trip to McDonald's and always welcomed a gift card or two so that he could buy some coffee and something to eat. A generous advocate worked to secure him an apartment in hopes of moving Peter out of his makeshift housing and into something safer. Peter finally got the grand tour of his new "digs," received his own key, remarked how wonderful the place was, closed the door behind him when they left and never returned. He preferred his tent. No matter how much things changed on the outside, Peter was happy where he was. A poignant lesson was learned that day.

How is your Lent going? By now you ought to have a sense of whether you're really "into it" this year and something transformational is happening. For many, it's only the stuff on the outside that changes for a few weeks and then they return to business as usual. For others, there are some real inner changes happening that are deepening their relationships with God, others, self, and creation. If we are serious about moving to a new place and radiating with the presence of new life and joy, then we have to clear the way to listen for God's call. Then, there is God's request to change things up a bit and order our lives differently. After realizing we have been called and given a mission, we have to trust that this is where we need to be. And then, after all of this hard work we are asked to act. The fruit that is revealed will indicate whether our journey is authentic. The brilliance of conversion will begin to shine on our faces as we contemplate the One to whom we are asked to listen.

Fish Fry Food Donated to Meal Sites in Milwaukee

Since Blessed Sacrament Fish Fries for Lent 2021 were cancelled due to the continuation of the pandemic, we had to make a decision concerning the food being stored in the parish freezer and pantry that was nearing its expiration date. We decided to donate all the food to The St. Vincent de Paul Meal Program—931 W. Madison Street and The Gathering Free Community Meal Program - 804 East Juneau Avenue. The food donated to serve approximately 225 meals.

Please Pray For Us

This year, Blessed Sacrament Parish has seven RCIA/Adult Confirmation participants who have been studying about the Catholic Church's beliefs and teachings since September. They will be receiving sacraments during the Easter Vigil. Please pray for them today during the Second Sunday of Lent Penitential Rite and during the remainder of Lent, as they grow in their relationship with God and the community.

Candidates

Tamara Rodriguez is a married young woman. Receiving Eucharist and Confirmation has been part of her spiritual plan for two years. She has enjoyed the RCIA process which has strengthened her faith and given her a "better relationship with God."

Elizabeth Sanchez is a single young woman. She is currently working from home for a financial institution. "Growing older, I found myself seeking stability and true meaning in life." The RCIA process has been a blessing. She looks forward to a deeper relationship with God and being part of and serving the Church community.

Kaitlyn York is a single young woman. She is a student at Alverno and employed as a teacher of three year olds. She has been thinking about being involved with the church for about a year. "I need some sort of belonging somewhere, so it was just my calling at this time." She looks forward to participating fully at Mass and having a sense of peace.

Adult Confirmation

Ashley Gregory is married mother of one child. Her decision to be confirmed has been in process for almost a year. Becoming a mother it became very important for her to enter into full communion with the Church. "I am looking forward to being part of a strong and passionate community that is devoted to God. I am looking forward to growing my relationship with God and teaching it to my family."

Gregory Lucas is an engaged father of one child. He is employed at Target as a warehouse worker. He has been thinking about joining the church for about two years. Gregory has found the RCIA classes to be "very enlightening, allowing him to grow closer to God." He looks forward to "spreading my faith with my friends and family, as well as my community."

Joshua Lucas is a single young man who is also employed at Target as a warehouse worker. He is excited to be receiving Confirmation at the Easter Vigil, allowing him to be in full communion with the Catholic Church. He's been thinking about getting confirmed for some time. "Now was a good time to do it."

Catherine O'Donnell is a mother of one child. She is employed as a teacher and artist. She has been thinking about coming back to the Church for about two years. "I am looking forward to continuing to participate as a cantor and possibly teaching Sunday School or Confirmation. I am looking forward to continuing my relationship with God and growing my faith."
